U.S., Soviet Near Armed Showdown At Sea On Vessels Bound For Cuba

Agreement Ends Globe Brick Strike

Skeleton Crew Back Preparing Newell Plant For Working

Globe Brick Co. and Local 647 of the International Brick and Clayworkers Union reached an agreement Tuesday night that ended a 52-day strike of 226 employes and cleared the way for further negotiations on a new contract.

The Newell firm today began preparations for resuming production and is recalling employes on a limited basis until full operations are in sight.

Representatives of union and management agreed Tuesday night at 8:30 to begin recalling employes while negotiations for a new pact continue.

Talks had reached a virtual impasse with the Local pressing for arbitration on five outstanding issues, and the company asking that they be negotiated.

The basic issues involved in the disagreement included job classifications. The local was not seeking salary increases.

Under the agreement reached last night, the employes will return to their jobs while issues not resolved previously be negotiated until Aug. 31, 1963.

A "no strike" clause will prevail until Aug. 31.

If certain issues are not resolved by that date, they will be considered part of the points to be negotiated but the local will then have the authority to either strike again or continue working until the issues are ironed out.

The company today recalled a skeleton crew to begin preparations for resuming production.

The employes will be recalled by phone "as required, depending on the orders," a company spokesman said.

The local, headed by William G. Brewer, had been idled since Sept. 1 when its old two-year contract expired. The strike was the first in 50 years at the Globe plant in Kenilworth.

Workers At Kobuta To Vote On Proposal

Some 650 production workers of the Koppers Co.'s Kobuta plant will begin voting at 1 p. m. Thursday on a final offer from the company to settle the strike on Local 8-74 of the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers now in its sixth month.

The company proposal embodies the recommendations of a panel of federal mediators as well as other terms and conditions. However, no details of the proposal were released.

The secret vote will be taken at the union hall in Monaca.

It is the first major step in the latest effort to settle the long dispute. If the proposal is accepted, formation of a special strike agreement will be the next step.

Stephen I. Schlossberg, special assistant to the director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, issued a statement praising the panel of mediators and company representatives and the union negotiating committee for their efforts.

He expressed confidence the proposal will be accepted.

The production workers have been on strike since May 1 when the old contract expired.

$3.9 Billion Aid Bill Signed By President

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has signed the $3.9-foreign aid bill. The measure prohibits aid to any country providing military or economic assistance to Cuba or which permits its ships to haul cargo there.

There is a similar ban on 18 designated Communist countries. However, the President may waive these provisions if he informs the Foreign Relations committees of both houses of Congress.

The appropriation, signed late Tuesday, is 20 per cent below what Kennedy had requested.

U.S. Assumes Real Lead In Hemisphere

Electrifies Latin America With Bold Challenge To Reds

MEXICO CITY (AP)—The United States appears to have electrified Latin America and to have leaped overnight to a position of real leadership in the Western Hemisphere with its bold showdown challenge to the Soviet Union.

Latin American sources attending the hemisphere finance ministers conference here say that the initial shock has worn off and that Latin leaders are taking a new and appreciative look at Washington.

If the United States wins its gamble to halt the Soviet weapons buildup in Cuba, these sources say, it will be in a far better position than ever before to push ahead with the Alliance for Progress program to lead the hemisphere toward political, social and economic stability.

The extreme left is not expected to take all this lying down. The Communists and their Castroist allies in Latin America can be relied upon to do all in their power to threaten governments and leaders with noisy demonstrations and various forms of violence.

But something new has been infused into the Latin-American scene with the development of the greatest world crisis since the end of World War II.

The overwhelming vote of the Organization of American States in support of President Kennedy's decisions is a token of the change.

Latin Americans point out that President Kennedy's action will not necessarily make people of the hemisphere love the United States. But they say that if the Kennedy decision is made to stick, it will create respect for the United States of a sort which was not there before.

Embezzlement Trial May Begin On Nov. 13

Trial of Miss Roberta Smith, 36, of Fairmont St., charged with embezzlement of $23,841 in funds of the city sewage and water departments, has been set tentatively for Nov. 13 in Common Pleas Court at Lisbon.

The trial of William L. Johnson, 30, of Campbell, indicted for burglary of the L. & E. Record Shop in Columbiana, is expected to begin Monday before Judge Joel H. Sharp.

Johnson, along with Emmett Perkins, 24, also of Campbell, were indicted jointly by the recalled April Grand Jury, and Perkins has pleaded guilty and requested probation. Ronald D. Hathman, 24, of Campbell, indicted by the September Grand Jury was found guilty by the court and requested probation.

UN Pressed To Nip War Over Cuba

45 Smaller Nations Appeal To U Thant As Crisis Mounts

BULLETIN

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Britain and Venezuela today threw their support behind the U.S. military quarantine of Cuba as Acting U.N. Secretary-General U Thant weighed a small nation appeal that he intervene in an attempt to head off a U.S.-Soviet showdown.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—In an effort to avert a shooting war over Cuba, 45 smaller powers pressed Acting U.N. Secretary-General U Thant today to call on all nations involved to stop any provocative acts until some solution is reached.

The Security Council scheduled a second round of debate on the Cuban crisis.

Convinced that the council would wind up in a deadlock over opposing U.S. and Soviet resolutions, the small powers delegated Ghana, the United Arab Republic and Cyprus to ask Thant to intervene.

Many of the small nations wanted to call directly on President Kennedy to lift his arms quarantine of Cuba, but it was decided instead to address the appeal in general terms.

Considerable doubt was felt that the United States, having ordered its warships to halt all vessels in Cuban waters, would pay any attention to an appeal addressed only to it. The group—made up of nations from Africa, Asia, Europe and Latin America—was hopeful that a general appeal to the United States, the Soviet Union and Cuba might ease the situation.

Some observers viewed the small nation action as a sign that the United States might not get the support it hopes for if it takes its case to the 109-nation General Assembly. Many nations which strongly oppose both Cuba and the Soviet Union feel a blockade is too drastic a move and risks a head-on collision between the United States and the Soviet Union.

U.S. Delegate Adlai E. Stevenson urged the 11-nation Security Council to act at once before the Soviets swallow up the world piecemeal.

Stevenson charged that the flow of Soviet missiles and other offensive weapons into Cuba is a "grave threat to the Western Hemisphere and the peace of the world."

De Gaulle Supports Kennedy's Cuba Move

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Charles de Gaulle of France reportedly has sent President Kennedy a message supporting his actions in the Cuban crisis and predicting the Soviet Union will not go to war.

Informants said Tuesday De Gaulle intends to visit the United States next year—perhaps earlier if the world situation warrants—to return Kennedy's 1961 French visit.

Red Chinese Advancing At Four Points

India Turns Down Peiping's Proposal On Peace Parley

NEW DELHI (AP) — Chinese Communists are advancing into northeast India at four points, and India has rejected Peiping's proposal for peace talks on Chinese terms, an official spokesman said today.

Chinese troops have driven to within 10 or 12 miles of the important monastery town of Towang, in northeast India, to the west and are also pushing toward it from the north.

A fresh Chinese attack into India has been launched at Asfila, on the northeast frontier about 100 miles east of Towang.

At the eastern end of the northeastern border, near Burma, an Indian post has fallen and the Chinese are driving down the Luhit River valley.

At the northwest end of the disputed Himalayan frontier, in Ladakh, the Chinese have attacked for the first time in Changchenmo River valley and have captured a post.

Although the spokesman declined to comment on the over-all Ladakh situation, it appeared to observers that the Chinese might have overrun all Indian military posts on what the Chinese claim to be their territory.

High Indian officials said a Red Chinese proposal for a meeting between Prime Minister Nehru and Premier Chou En-lai to settle the border dispute was "pure hypocrisy."

Congress Grim

Leaders Accept Risk Of A-War

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional leaders grimly accepted today the prospect that full scale military action may be needed to back President Kennedy's move aimed at wiping out the Cuban missile threat to the Western Hemisphere.

Without exception, party leaders scheduled to confer with Kennedy late today on the crisis made it clear they recognized the risk of nuclear war is great. They are willing to take it.

Some of them expect a preliminary showdown with the Soviet Union in the shipping lanes almost momentarily. Others believe that if the President's demand for dismantling of Soviet controlled missile bases in Cuba is flouted, massive military action to take them over might come later.

The unanimous viewpoint that the crisis is heading toward a climax was sustained by a statement of Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon.

Dillon told a meeting of Latin American finance ministers in Mexico City Tuesday that if offensive preparations on the island are not halted immediately "further action will be fully justified."

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, deputy Democratic Senate leader, told reporters that, come what may, the United States "is not going to tolerate what they have in missiles already or any expansion of them."

Humphrey said that in White House meetings he had attended there had been no time limit set on Kennedy's demand for removal of the bases.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana said Soviet Premier Khrushchev and Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro should not longer have any doubts that the United States is ready to protect Western Hemisphere security.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said in a separate interview the situation is so tense that almost anything can happen. His deputy, Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel of California, said the prospect of a general nuclear war cannot be thrust aside.

After their conference with the President today, some of the congressional leaders expect to return to their home states to resume their campaigning.

Police Added To Curb Salineville Vandalism

SALINEVILLE — Police Chief Roy Lewis announced N. D. (Diz) Temple of Lincoln St., a volunteer fireman, has been sworn in as a special officer to help curb recent vandalism.

Lewis reported eight out-buildings were toppled over by vandals in the village Monday night, and warned that prosecution and payment of damages faces anyone apprehended. Two other special officers were sworn in last week.

Castro Snubs Any Limit On Arms Buildup

Declares Kennedy's Arms Quarantine An Act Of Piracy

HAVANA (AP) — Asserting he has the weapons to "repulse any aggression," Prime Minister Fidel Castro rejected any limit on Cuba's arms buildup Tuesday night and called the U.S. arms quarantine an act of piracy.

"Our arms are defensive," Castro declared as he defied a U.S. proposal for the United Nations to send in an inspection team to investigate President Kennedy's charge that Soviet missile bases are planted in Cuba.

Anyone trying to carry out an arms inspection in Cuba "had better come ready for combat," the bearded revolutionary leader told the nation in a 90-minute television address.

Castro scoffed at Kennedy's warning in his speech Monday that the flow of Soviet arms to Cuba was a menace to the Western Hemisphere.

He ridiculed the Organization of American States for its solid support of the U.S. quarantine of Cuba. He called the organization's inter-American defense pact a scrap of paper only "valid for those following in the flock of imperialism."

Castro, who had mobilized Cuba's military forces right after Kennedy's blockade announcement, was 30 minutes late for his address.

President Osvaldo Dorticos, dressed in a militiaman's uniform, and other high government officials sat in the studio.

Motorist, 42, Injured In Maplewood Crash

A 42-year-old driver was injured in a near head-on crash in Maplewood Tuesday night, police reported.

Robert Adkins of Meadow Rd. was treated at City Hospital for a laceration of the lower lip and abrasions of the scalp and right knee after a collision at 9:42 at St. Clair and Garner Aves. that involved his 1962 sedan and a 1957 model station wagon driven by Miss Abbie Z. Harris, 22, of 3230 Curry Rd., officers said.

Miss Harris told police Adkins turned his oncoming car into her path and she swerved in an unsuccessful attempt to avoid a collision. Adkins said he was turning into a dairy store's parking lot, misjudged the speed of the approaching Harris car and turned into its path. The crash damaged the front of each car, police said

25 Russian Cargo Ships Are On Way

U.S. Fleet Ready To Intercept Craft Carrying Weapons

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States and the Soviet Communists approached an armed showdown on the high seas at midmorning today, as Soviet cargo ships plowed toward Cuba and American naval power converged on them.

Strung out along the approaches to Cuba were an estimated 25 Soviet ships. Some of them quite possibly were carrying offensive weapons to the Cuban Communist ally—a movement which President Kennedy says must be stopped.

At 9 a.m. Eastern Standard Time, Kennedy's quarantine went into effect and the historic moment was at hand. The first warships headed in toward the first Soviet cargo ships.

A few hours before, the Navy had broadcast radio warnings to all shipping to stand clear of the area, that it could become dangerous.

There was a report that Soviet Embassy officials here were claiming that no Soviet ship would heed the stop signal of any U.S. warship.

Cuba's Fidel Castro saw the quarantine as an act of war and Moscow took a grave and angry view.

For more than a year the tension between the United States and Cuba had mounted. Then on Monday night, Kennedy made his move, announcing a quarantine with the clamp on offensive arms shipments into Cuba. He was accepting the fact that anything might happen as a result.

The Defense Department made public aerial reconnaissance photographs which it said proved the charge that the Soviet Union was installing or has installed ballistic missiles, almost certainly with nu-

Gromyko Tells West To Pull Berlin Troops

BERLIN (AP)—Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko was reported today to have renewed the Communist demand that Western troops get out of Berlin and called for full recognition of East German sovereignty.

The official East German news agency ADN said Gromyko made the statements in a speech to a crowd in East Berlin after he toured the wall dividing the city.

Navy, Marine Enlistments Are Extended

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara has extended enlistments of Navy and Marine personnel for up to one year, saying they are needed to man the U.S. arms quarantine of Cuba.

McNamara, in announcing the order Tuesday night, said extra manpower also is needed to reinforce the U.S. Naval Base at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba.

McNamara said the order applies to all men now on active duty and in effect means that there will be no discharges, except for hardship, until further notice up to one year from now. All Navy and Marine Corps personnel are volunteers.

Congress recently authorized President Kennedy to extend enlistments up to one year and to recall to active duty up to 150,000 Reserves to meet any crisis. The congressional authority expires next Feb. 28, two months after Congress reconvenes.

McNamara said no steps are being taken to call up any Reserves at this time.

Pentagon officials said the extension order probably would increase the Navy by 10,000 men a month and the Marines by 2,400 men a month.

Program Begins Monday

Education Week Observance Set

American Education Week will be observed in the city school system Monday through Nov. 2, with special programs and events planned at the various buildings.

A highlight of the observance will be a "Fall Music Festival" scheduled Tuesday night at Memorial Auditorium. Students from all the schools will participate.

The city's schools will hold various events including display of pupil's work, classroom visitation by parents, films, teas and programs. A number of the buildings will hold open house in the evenings when demonstration classes will be staged for parents.

KEITH Dunlevy, principal of Klondyke and Neville Schools, said parents will be encouraged to visit the classrooms during the entire week, although special invitations will be sent home with the students for the parents to visit Neville the afternoon of Nov. 1 and Klondyke next Tuesday afternoon.

A film, "Your Child's Intelligence," will be screened at Klondyke School Tuesday at 3 p. m. and at Neville following dismissal Nov. 1. Bulletin boards and classrooms at both schools are being decorated in keeping with the observance.

At Pleasant Heights, Ruth B. Armstrong, principal, said a PTA meeting will be held Monday night at 7:30. The teachers will explain the school program and a member of the Citizens Committee For Better Schools will outline the need for the new school levy. Parents are invited to visit the classrooms during school hours Thursday and Friday.

PARENTS are invited to visit Tuesday morning at Garfield, according to Ann Johnston, principal. Regular school work will be observed, along with dramatizations, films, math, English, art and writing displays, choral readings, a panorama of science and pupil reports on curriculum.

An abbreviated version of the entire school day will be held, with the children spending 10 minutes on each subject. A special assembly program will feature a play, "Vacation on the Moon," musical selections and another play, "Instant Education."

The main activity at Horace Mann will be during the afternoon of Thursday, Nov. 1. The program includes reading groups, dramatizations, problem solving, stories written for English, writing, spelling and a newscast using Weekly Readers.

Displays of classroom work will be featured. A special assembly will be held, including plays and songs having a direct bearing on education, elections and the exercising of one's right and duty to vote.

President Kennedy's Speech

President Kennedy finally has informed the Russians—and the world—that this nation no longer intends to pretend it believes an obvious sham in Cuba.

He has been given evident proof that the "defense" bases the Russians have been building in Cuba, 90 miles from United States shores, are not for defense.

He has notified the world, in forceful language, that this nation intends to halt an offensive buildup which threatens not only the United States but the whole Western Hemisphere.

On a number of occasions in the past year and a half President Kennedy has spoken forcefully about his intentions not to let this nation be pushed around—and then backed down when the time for action seemed to have arrived.

THIS TIME let us hope he means to follow through.

In doing so he will have the solid support of the whole country.

President Kennedy, in his eloquently serious address to the nation Monday night, revealed that he has learned what two of his predecessors learned—that no one can depend on the Russians' word.

He revealed that he had been assured by the Russians that they would send no arms of material into Cuba except for defensive purposes. He disclosed that only recently Andrei Gromyko, on his White House visit, made a point of re-emphasizing the "defense only" assurance.

All the while, the President now knows, the Russians were building missile bases—for offense — and jet plane strips — probably for offense.

THIS COMES not many months after the United States, in the hope of achieving a moratorium on the nuclear arms buildup, voluntarily ceased its atomic weapons tests —only to have the Russians use the time to build up and perfect their nuclear weapons, then unexpectedly resume testing.

In view of the latest crass deception involving Cuba, it is no wonder that the American people have been greatly reluctant to enter into any sort of arms moratorium in which the Russians would not permit open inspection.

Communist Russia has made it unmistakably clear that it is embarked on a program of world domination. How rapidly it intends to try to reach its goal is of the Communists' choosing.

During the last 15 years it has accomplished much toward its goal by the simple device of seizing the initiative wherever it could—by refusing to permit a peace in Korea, by keeping Germany split up in violation of the postwar agreements, by feeding arms to Red revolutionists in Southeast Asia and, now, by seizing control of pitiful little Cuba as a sword of Damocles hanging over all of the Americas.

IT IS TIME, as President Kennedy said Monday night, that this nation act in its own interests.

It is time that the Russians' bluff be called.

President Kennedy admittedly is pursuing a dangerous course. But it would be immensely more dangerous for the United States to continue on and on with appeasement.

One thing we can be sure of: If the Russian timetable calls for war, Russia will not hesitate to initiate war. It will start it at its own time and place and by its own method, no matter what we do or do not do.

We fervently hope Russia does not want war.

Whatever it wants, we cannot afford to be pushed any further.

THE LESSONS of the last 31 years should remain too painfully vivid in the memory of Americans — Japan's ignored push into Manchuria in 1931, Mussolini's unopposed conquest of Ethiopia in 1935, the Fascist-Communist dress rehearsal for World War II in Spain in 1936, Hitler's step-by-step seizure of European countries in 1938-39.

The United States—and all the free world —cannot afford to let that kind of history repeat itself.

The time already is late to call a halt.

This time, if we hope to preserve peace, we must permit no more encroachments.

Politicians Win Elections

Former President Eisenhower is the latest to advise businessmen to get into politics. He said it at a closed meeting of the Business Council, a high-level group of top-flight executives.

But advice is not necessarily good because it is given often by sincere advisers. Is it really good advice to tell businessmen they should get into politics? Is it better advice than to tell politicians they should get into business?

Politics is an art in itself. It is not something all businessmen do with the left hand or by second nature. And it most decidedly is not business under another name, as every businessman who went to Washington has discovered.

The good advice that former President Eisenhower and others are trying to pass along to businessmen would make more sense if it were stated like this:

Businessmen should understand how politics works and what the politicians are doing. Everybody should.

But unless a businessman means to get into politics full time, he should not bemuse himself with the idea he can wade in just far enough to get his feet wet and expect to chalk up good results. He should leave politics to politicians.

He can be as ridiculous as an interloper as the proverbial self-taught brain surgeon. Being neither full-time businessman nor full-time politician, he can lose the respect of the full-time members of both occupations.

And because he has nibbed into something on the grounds that he has all the answers and is going to be generous with his superior talents, he can give the entire business community a black eye with the politicians — as black an eye as businessmen give college professors who dabble in government without ever having met a payroll.

How many businessmen, after all, have won an election?

Cotton Corners

By Truman Twill

Dear Nephew: I read the article you refered to and agree it would be fine if we could find more people to work in domestic service.

I remembered what used to happen around this part of the country but is rarely seen now — the boy and girl who worked for other families because their family needed the extra income.

These same boys and girls, if they work for wages at all today, would expect to work at something fancier than the menial jobs they used to do. But the menial jobs still need to be done.

Think of the potential energy and skill in people who are unemployed that is being wasted because they cannot go into domestic service. Not only would it lower their status, as they think of it, but on the pay they could get they couldn't make ends meet anyway.

Wasn't it you who said when job shrinkage began in the steel industry that this country was going to have some of the highest-priced jobless men ever seen?

Only in fiction do people go into domestic service who don't have to be there. But only in reality would people rather live on public subsistence than take a job as a household servant.

You wonder what difference it might make if enough of us were wealthy enough to pay what it would be worth to have someone to take care of household chores. Think what it would mean in caring for the aged if steady, reliable people could be found to take that responsibility in homes, instead of in hospitals and nursing homes.

Imagine how many householders would jump at a chance to hire a handyman, if they could afford one. Or how many overworked mothers could use help with the housework while their children are young.

People in moderate circumstances used to have this kind of help. They could afford it then. There was room inside their incomes to pay people to help out with what were thought of as the necessities — washing, ironing, cooking.

I could be wrong about this — after all, we never attained moderate circumstances until recent times. But it's my impression the people who worked at these tasks were held in high esteem. They worked "out," but there was no opprobrium to it.

Take your aunt and me. We could use a handyman. I would say a housekeeper, except two women under the same roof represent more trouble than I want to tackle.

But a handyman could do all kinds of things. Handyman? What we need is a man of all work — someone to wash windows, carry boxes, keep the place neat, wash the car, shovel snow, do the chores when we're away or get sick, wash woodwork, make minor repairs and so on and so on.

We couldn't pay much, but we might come to an understanding that would assign value to things in lieu of cash — congeniality, good food, good working conditions. I can name a half dozen aging couples in this part of the country who potentially are in the market for this kind of help.

One thing's certain. Not everybody can operate an electronic brain. Thousands of people with no skill and no aptitude for acquiring skill need work. Isn't it possible some of them would do very well for themselves if they could go into domestic service?

Thanks for accepting the Thanksgiving invitation. The turkey will be ready; I acquired him today and he will live like a king until the night before the fateful day. I'm looking forward to his sojourn. He will be someone different for me to talk to when I go to the barn. Regards to all.

Deeper And Stickier

For Want Of A Flag

By Walter Gray

OTTAWA

No controversy has raged so long or aroused such deep emotions among Canadians as that over the question of a national flag and anthem. For years the furor has raged, but no government has yet had the courage to end it boldly and simply.

Prime Minister John Diefenbaker, during the recent federal general election campaign, gave himself lots of leeway, promising a distinctive national flag and anthem by 1967, the year of Canada's 100th birthday. Liberal leader Lester Pearson promised a solution within two years after his party took office.

Now, Raoul Caouette, the French Canadian firebrand who led 26 of 30 Social Credit candidates to a surprise victory in the June election, has promised to end the issue within six months if his party ever gets control.

The secretary of state's office wishes the flag issue would be settled soon for it is running out of storage space. Its files contain nearly 6,000 designs in every conceivable shape and color, containing every popular Canadian symbol beavers, moose, geese, buffalo, maple leaves, evergreen trees, codfish, salmon, mountains, lakes, rivers, igloos, Eskimos and Indians.

CANADA DOES have an official flag, the Canadian ensign, which has flown over most federal government buildings since 1924, and under which the armed forces fought in World War II and the Korean War.

The Canadian ensign is actually the flag of the Canadian Merchants Marine, being the British red ensign with the Canadian coat of arms in the fly.

Mr. Diefenbaker favors the ensign as Canada's official flag and so do most members of his cabinet. But many Canadians want an emblem peculiar to this country. By that they mean no Union Jack inset, as in the ensign, no fleur de lis as dominates the provincial flag of Quebec, no Commonwealth or French ties of any kind.

The ensign became Canada's official flag in 1945 when the government found itself in the awkward position of having no flag to be hoisted at the founding conference of the United Nations at San Francisco. An order in council passed by the government stated that until such time as action is taken by Parliament for the formal adoption of a national flag, authority is granted for the flying of the red ensign on federal buildings within and without Canada.

The fall session of Parliament in 1945 produced the first major step towards a national flag. A joint parliamentary committee of the Commons and Senate was set up to begin the arduous task of studying designs. Approximately 2,400 were received from all parts of the country.

When Parliament convened again the committee began eliminating the designs, but committee members knew from the outset that they could never agree on just how distinctive the flag should be.

EVENTUALLY, the ensign was recommended as the national flag, but with a couple of changes. It was suggested the flag have a maple leaf in gold, in a bordered background of white, replacing the coat of arms in the fly. Because of strong opposition, the committee's recommendation was not adopted by Parliament. Still the designs come in. And still the controversy rages.

One young French Canadian, Paul Lapointe, a Montreal University student, has made the flag issue his personal crusade. Last year, he and two friends hitch-hiked across the country carrying his own flag on top of a 30 foot flagstaff.

Mr. Lapointe's flag contains a green maple leaf centered on a red and white diagonal background. During the recent election campaign Mr. Lapointe kept popping up at unexpected places waving his flag, and at Granby, Quebec during a visit by Prime Minister Diefenbaker, he and his friends began singing "O Canada", forcing the prime minister to stop and stand at attention while they waved their flag proudly.

At the last session of Parliament five members, four of them French Canadians, sponsored private bills, but none was successful.

A conference is to be held to consider "The choice of a national flag and other national symbols," which will, "make manifest the Canadian identity." Canadians are awaiting its deliberations with not a little scepticism. And the designs are beginning to flow in again.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Wednesday, Oct. 24th, the 297th day of 1962. There are 68 days left in the year. Today is United Nations Day.

Today's highlight in history:

On this day in 1945, Secretary of State James Byrnes signed the United Nations Charter. On this same date in 1949, U.N. Secretary-General Trygve Lie laid the cornerstone of the permanent U.N. headquarters in New York City.

On this date:

In 1603, James I was proclaimed king of England, Scotland, France and Ireland.

In 1848, Samuel F.B. Morse was awarded a patent for his telegraph.

In 1931, the George Washington Bridge across the Hudson River, linking New York and New Jersey, was opened to the public.

In 1945, Gen. Douglas MacArthur ordered a free and independent press in Japan.

In 1951, President Truman formally proclaimed the end of the war between the United States and Germany.

Today's birthday:

Former major league baseball manager Ossie Bluege is 62.

Thought for today:

U.S. Security Justifies Risk In Cuba

The climax had to come sooner or later — and many people have felt for some time that decisive action with reference to the Communist build - up of missile bases in Cuba was long overdue.

David Lawrence

President Kennedy had sensed recently what appeared to be the sentiment throughout the country that a military base 90 miles away from the United States is intolerable — whether it be called a violation of the Monroe Doctrine or a direct threat to the security of the United States itself.

For several months, the American government has known that missile bases were being built and equipped in Cuba but, up to now, the officially announced assumption has been that all this was "defensive" on Cuba's part.

There is, however, little difference actually between a missile base built for defense and one built for offensive purposes.

For reasons best known to the President, it was heretofore deemed unwise, however, to characterize the missile bases as "offensive." But when word of recent shipments from the Soviet Union — including light bombers —was received from authoritative sources by the United States government, there no longer was any reason to hesitate to call the missile bases in Cuba by their right name.

EVEN BEFORE the President announced his intention of speaking to the nation, Sen. Kenneth Keating, R-NY, referred to the report he had publicized recently concerning the construction of six intermediate-range missile bases in Cuba. He had declared that the missile bases would have a 2,000 to 2,500-mile range. He said missiles from these bases could strike at the heart of the United States and at the Panama Canal. Not far away from Cuba also is the all-important base at Cape Canaveral, Fla.

Under the circumstances, the President required only the information that the Cubans were unquestionably engaged with Soviet experts in building an offensive base with nuclear warheads before he told the world that such an operation must be abolished and that hereafter Cuba will be "quarantined" and, in effect blockaded.

The timing of the President's conferences and his decision to summon the leaders of both political parties in Congress were something of a surprise even in Washington, because Mr. Kennedy was himself engaged in a campaign trip. Naturally, there is speculation as to whether the dramatic way the whole thing was handled will have some relationship to the current congressional campaign. But any such relationship, it will be asserted in administration circles, is purely "coincidental."

THE CRISIS is a serious one and both parties always tend to work together in an emergency atmosphere. It so happens that the Republicans have been making an issue out of the procrastination of the White House and the State Department in the whole Cuban affair, as the people of the country have shown they were more perturbed about it all than Mr. Kennedy had realized. So bipartisan agreement now may be expected on any steps that become necessary.

The first stage involves, of course, the customary warning so that not only Cuba but the Soviet Union may know that the United States means business. Unless the missile bases are dismantled, the people of this country will continue to feel uneasy and may demand that there be some form of military occupation.

The big question in the background has been: What will the Soviet Union do if the United States gets tough with Cuba? The administration could not afford to sit on its hands while pondering possible answers to that question.

It became clear that the Washington government would have to take the initiative and incur whatever risks might be necessary.

For, in international law, it has always been recognized that military security is paramount. A demand that foreign forces be withdrawn from the island might well be considered only a first step, with invasion and occupation as a natural sequel if no satisfaction is obtained.

Will the Soviets ever risk a worldwide conflagration just to help out Castro? The experts think not. In fact, without well-corroborated information on this point, President Kennedy doubtless wouldn't have risked making the public statement he has now broadcast to the world.

MR. KENNEDY always has insisted that Cuba and Berlin are closely related and that both situations must be taken into account as likely to be connected in the minds of the men in the Kremlin.

The Soviet Union, of course, is plenty worried today about internal problems and about the aggressive behavior of the Red Chinese, who have invaded India. The last thing Moscow wants at this time is a world war, especially since any likelihood of this would produce a restiveness in the Communist-bloc and a major crisis for the Soviet Union.

All in all, President Kennedy evidently felt that the risk of dealing firmly with Cuba was worth taking — irrespective of Berlin and developments in other parts of the world.

Letters To The Editor

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

I repent! Why? Not because of inaccuracy, untruthfulness, or the threats directed at me, but because I seem to have picked the wrong audience.

For it appears that many have completely missed the point. The point not being the controversy over segregation, but the powers and rights of the federal and state governments.

On Oct. 10 The Review published a rather lengthy rebuttal of my letter of Oct. 3. The facts are, however, the person who wrote this said very little relevant to my letter. What he did accomplish was to grossly contort, add to, and adapt what I said to support his own attitude. The point this person makes through gross contortion—the point I cannot see, the point I cannot believe—is that I discussed civil rights.

Where, may I ask, did I mention "civil rights" to "the color of the skin", or for that matter even insinuate them? As for the statement, ". . .James H. Meredith Mississippi's foremost student," I, for one, have seen no such statement by the knowledgeable.

You said, ". . .as some ignorant backwoodsman might imagine.", I know of none. You stated, "Mr. Nile is attempting to combine an obnoxious mixture of disrespect for law with disrespect for his elders." I say those who merit respect receive it. Your comparing the danger of Cuba to that of a "cigarette" is rather ridiculous. As for your statement, "The sooner we realize that the color of skin has nothing to do with what capabilities lie under that skin. . ." I can find no reference, in my letter, to either "the color of the skin" or "capabilities".

As for your statement, "I believe that the schooling we Americans receive on the American Negro's history lacks a true picture and is the cause for much of the kind of feelings that Nile expresses." I did not express "feelirg" about the Negro.

As for your statement, ". . .He should stick to geography and leave civil rights to somebody who knows what he's talking about", I not only did stick to geography, but I will gladly leave civil rights "to somebody who knows what he's talking about".

I leave you with this question: Do you now understand? My point is, that instead of saying as you did about Laos and Cuba, ". . . it's like running across the street to stamp out a cigarette while your house is burning down". It could be better stated, sending troops to Mississippi is like calling the police force to catch a pickpocket while ignoring your neighbor who is leveling a cannon at your southern wall.

Key Witness Missing In Liquor Probe

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—"Okay, John, you know where the auditor's office is," said Adrian B. Fink Jr. to his aide in conducting a special grand jury investigation into charges of influence peddling in the state liquor monopoly. "Tomorrow, go over and ask them if they know where Makler is."

The "tomorrow" now is today, and attorney John M .Manos, as assistant to special counsel Fink, was to visit deputy auditors William Morris and Roy Martin. Manos was to ask whether they know where to find Joseph H. Makler of Chicago, missing accuser who would be a key witness.

Morris and Martin's boss, Auditor James A. Rhodes, was out of town today on his Republican campaign for governor.

Morris and Martin previously have said they did not know the whereabouts of the distiller who said he had to make payoffs to get his liquor listed in Ohio in 1959. But Fink directed Manos to try them again at the request of Gov. Michael V. DiSalle.

Witnesses scheduled to testify today, last day of the probe before a long weekend recess, included Liquor Director George R. Dick, being recalled after testifying last week; Milton Farber of Columbus, attorney for Gilbert Bilenkin, president of Famous Brands, Inc., Dayton, and the Montgomery County auditor.

Bilenkin, whose turn to testify will come later, Tuesday night in Dayton made his first public pronouncements since being named in the probe.

Bilenkin not only denied the allegation he got influence money from Makler and others, but was indignant about what he said was rude treatment his secretary received during grand jury questioning Monday.

Bilenkin told the Dayton Journal Herald "a certain person" on the jury "got out of line" in remarks to the secretary, Mrs. Florence Gormley, bookkeeper for Bilenkin's Bilmar Company in Dayton.

Farber, Bilenkin's attorney, said Fink had apologized to him for remarks made in the grand jury room to Mrs. Gormley.

Bilenkin pooh-poohed Atty. Gen Mark McElroy's suit to dissolve Famous Brands as "nothing." Bilenkin said "I want to reiterate everything" Farber said earlier Tuesday when the lawyer commented: "Bilenkin isn't guilty of anything and when the time comes we'll show that."

Bilenkin told the Journal Herald his earlier story of being hospitalized in New York was used because of what he termed annoying tactics of a reporter he declined to name. He said he did have an eye operation in July and used facts about that instance to avoid reporters in recent weeks.

The jury took testimony Tuesday from two newsmen whose articles brought Makler's charges to light and named other alleged instances of influence peddling.

Antioch Students Picket In Protest To Kennedy Act

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—About 100 Antioch College students returned to their pet picketing place, the Ohio Statehouse grounds, Tuesday night.

Most of them were protesting what the Student Peace Union some were representing called a "unilateral act of war" by President Kennedy in his quarantine on military shipments to Cuba.

But about a dozen were protesting the Student Peace Union demonstration.

Out-of-state Antioch students led the anti-blockade group. They contended the U.S. action on Cuba "threatens the security not only of our country but of the entire world."

The Student Peace Union, with headquarters in Chicago, also had pickets from its Wayne State University chapter outside Cobo Hall in Detroit. The organization's stated premise is that war must not be used to settle international disputes.

Assault Case Brings Fines To 3 City Men

Three young married men were given fines of $100 and costs and suspended 90-day terms in County Jail today by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff after he convicted them of striking a 34-year-old city woman in a rendezvous early the morning of Oct. 13 in a Beaver Creek cabin.

Judge Chertoff also gave a tongue-lashing to the three, identified as Robert Skinner, 22 of Midland, Arthur Kenneth Smith, 24, of 1010 Church St. and his brother, Robert L. Smith, 26, of Moore St.

The judge lectured the three for "forgetting their marital vows" although he added that testimony in the case indicated the "woman went willingly" with the three after they met her in a Dresden Ave. tavern.

Atty. George A. Aronson appeared in defense of the Smith brothers while Atty. William L. Bush represented Skinner. The three defendants changed their previous pleas of "not guilty" to "no contest" before the hearing got under way. Asst. Solicitor Richard Clark was prosecutor.

Sheriff Russell J. VanFossan was the lone prosecution witness. He related details of the encounter which he said he learned in interrogation of the three defendants at the County Jail Oct. 15.

He said the three men were in Sandy's Tavern early Oct. 13 when they met the woman. She agreed to accompany one of the men in his car and the other two were asleep in the back seat, he said. The woman was intimate with the two Smiths, but balked when Skinner approached her, he related. It was then that the alleged assault took place, the sheriff said.

The sheriff said he observed the woman later and found her face was scratched, her lower lip was cut and she complained "of having some loose teeth."

Testimony was introduced to show that the woman has been a patient in Youngstown Receiving Hospital on several occasions because of a mental condition and was at home on a trial visit at the time of the alleged incident. The defense entered pleas in mitigation before sentencing but none of the defendants took the stand.

Post Office Project Due At Salineville

SALINEVILLE — Postal officials were in town today in a move to obtain an option on a site for a new Post Office, preparatory to seeking construction bids soon, it was announced by Rep. Wayne L. Hays, 18th District congressman.

The Post Office Department at Washington will ask for bids soon for construction of a building on a lease - rental basis, and contracts may be let by Dec. 1, according to Rep. Hays.

The new structure would have a net interior space of 2,080 square feet and 108 square feet of platform area. The present Post Office, located in an E. Main St. building, has only 920 square feet of space.

Real estate aides from the regional office at Cincinnati were checking details of sites today.

If contracts are let on schedule, it is possible the new structure would be in use early next summer, Rep. Hays said.

Red Youths Protest

MOSCOW (AP) — About 100 sign-carrying Russian youths staged a 75-minute demonstration outside the U.S. Embassy today to protest American actions against Cuba.

Police dispersed the demonstrators, who were mostly of high school and grade school age.

THE PLAYS include "Mr. Bates Goes To The Polls," "The Secret in the Red Box," "Dr. Manners," "Halloween Space Shot" and "The Day The Numbers Went On Strike."

The Glenmoor and LaCroft Schools will hold "open house" Wednesday, Oct. 31, according to Elizabeth Coleman, principal.

The students are preparing announcements inviting their parents. They will be sent home this week.

Tea at Glenmoor will be served by Mrs. Kathy Wolfe, chairman of the homeroom mothers, and Mrs. Evelyn Bloor, assistant chairman.

Tea at LaCroft will be served by Mrs. Margaret Lovett and committee. She is chairman of the homeroom mothers.

The pupils at both schools are making posters in conjunction with the school levies. They will be displayed next week.

VISITATION will be Monday and Tuesday at Lincoln School and Tuesday at Taft School, according to Milton R. Watson, principal. Parents also will be received any other day of the week.

Both schools have written personal letters to the parents and friends inviting them to visit the classrooms. Various activities and projects will be displayed in each grade. The students at both schools also are making posters dealing with the school levies.

Evening classes for the parents will be held Monday at 7 p. m. at East Junior High School, according to Clarence G. Means, principal. Each class will be for 15 minutes. The teachers will discuss the courses. Students' work will be on display.

Visual education equipment also will be displayed, along with levy posters.

A demonstration of both boys' and girls' physical education will be held from 6:30 to 7 p. m. Boys will demonstrate shop equipment during each class period. The students will not attend, except for those in the gym and shop demonstrations.

THE PARENTS will be sent a letter of invitation and a class schedule.

Evening classes also will be held at Westgate Junior High. A regular schedule with abbreviated periods will be held to enable the parents to meet all the teachers. The pupils will take home a copy of the schedule. Thomas H. Dixon is principal.

The parents are invited to visit Westgate Elementary School any time during the week, according to Mildred McGregor, principal.

George Hargraves, principal, said the parents of high school students are invited any time during the regular school day. A newsletter will advertise the program. The time of the unassigned period of each teacher will be listed and parents will be encouraged to meet with them for individual conferences.

Choir Parents To Sell Articles

Articles from Indian were displayed at a meeting of the ELHS Choir Parents Tuesday evening in the choir room of the Memorial Auditorium. The items will be sold as a fund-raising project.

During business conducted by Mrs. Patrick O'Farrell, president, Mr. and Mrs. George Smurthwaite were added to the Booster Club to contact doctors and dentists, and Mrs. William Savage, lawyers.

The Choir Parents and the Band Parents will sponsor a Sadie Hawkins dance in November. The date will be announced.

Clarence Powell gave a report on the basketball program.

Miss Arletta Helfrich, choir director, thanked members for the reception held for her in September.

The Girls Choir will participate in the program for the meeting Nov. 27.

$20,300 Seen Total Cost Of Street Work

So many property - owners responded to the city's offer of a low-cost street surfacing program that the project grew to nearly three times the original estimate —involving a total expenditure of $20,300 to treat 57,995 square yards of thoroughfares, Safety-Service Director Robert Owen said today.

The director's report was based on data on the program compiled by City Engineer George Bloomgren's office. It shows that 75 street sections were surfaced in the program, concluded just a few weeks ago.

The city will have approximately $11,000 invested in the program, representing its 50 per cent share of the householders' cost, plus the expense of surfacing intersections, Owen said. Council originally appropriated $4,000 for the city's share, then added $7,000 when requests for the work continued to pour in.

Property-owners' share of the program will total approximately $9,300, Owen added. The city's share is greater because it assumed the cost of surfacing the intersections, he explained.

The director confirmed Councilman Edward Massey's previous estimate that the work resulted in surfacing of five miles of dirt streets.

The figures listed in the report today are based on actual measurements made on the job sites by the engineer's office, Owen explained.

"No doubt we will continue this program next year," the director said. He pointed out councilmen already have indicated a similar project will be set up in 1963.

"The administration very much appreciates the co-operation and response of the public," Owen said. "Surfacing of the streets will help the public as much as the city."

Cuba

clear warheads, on Cuban sites.

The Defense Department kept secrecy on the total of Navy ships and planes assigned to the quarantine operation and on the precise areas in which they were operating.

All indications pointed to a force of a size and type which seemed more than ample for the job. Obviously, the preparations were for events even more far-reaching than stopping merchantmen at sea, which might flare up from this first action.

The Washington Post said Soviet military attaches were spreading the word at a Soviet Embassy reception Tuesday night that Soviet ships steaming toward Cuba are under orders not to be stopped or searched.

Soviet Ambassador Anatoly Dobrynin declined to refute the statements. Speaking of an assistant naval attache who had made the remark, Dobrynin said: "He is the one who knows what the Navy is going to do, not I."

Kennedy signed a proclamation Tuesday night formally invoking the quarantine against offensive weapons — an act he said was needed to defend the security of the United States.

Ten minutes later, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara sent the Navy's Task Force 136 its formal orders to halt all ships headed for Cuba, to examine their cargoes and turn away any vessels—Soviet or other nationality—found to be carrying missiles, bombs, bombers and other weapons that could menace the United States or Latin-American nations.

The blockaders—already poised across the Atlantic—were told to use the minimum amount of force necessary to enforce the ban but skippers were given full authority to bring into play "whatever force is required." Clearly, this meant sinking Soviet vessels, if necessary.

Shortly after issuing these orders, McNamara announced he had extended the enlistments and duty tours of all Navy and Marine officers and enlisted men for up to 12 months. This is intended to provide the necessary manpower for the blockade and reinforcement of the U.S. naval base at Guantanamo Bay in Cuba.

The freeze will give the Navy an increase of about 10,000 men a month and the Marines 2,400 men a month. The only exemptions will be granted to men pleading unusual hardship.

The defense secretary said "we are taking no steps at the present time to call up reservists," although Congress has granted Kennedy authority to muster up to 150,000 of them if he thinks they are needed.

Other major developments:

In a Havana television address, Prime Minister Castro shouted "we will know how to defend ourselves. We have taken the measures to resist and repulse any aggression from the United States." He called Kennedy a pirate.

In London, British Foreign Secretary Lord Home accused Soviet leaders of placing Soviet missiles in Cuba deliberately to threaten the United States, the Caribbean and South America. He accused them of trying to cover it up with lies.

A group of about 40 smaller countries in the United Nations agreed to ask Acting Secretary-General U Thant to intervene in the crisis in an effort to avoid a U.S.-Soviet collision.

The Organization of American States overwhelmingly approved the arms blockade and demanded the removal of offensive military bases from Cuba.

French President Charles de Gaulle reportedly sent Kennedy a message supporting his actions in the Cuban crisis and predicting the Soviet Union will not go to war.

U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson urged the U.N. Security Council to act now on Cuba; Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerin Zorin told the United Nations that the arms blockade was a reckless act which brings the world to the brink of a thermonuclear war; Cuba's U.N. delegate, Mario Garcia-Inchaustegui, rejected a U.S. proposal that U.N. observers be sent to Cuba.

The Navy's special warning — beamed across the Atlantic — notified ships of all nations that "the President of the United States has proclaimed a quarantine of offensive military equipment under shipment to Cuba."

Beersheba is a city of 45,000 people, the Negev Desert's biggest commercial and industrial center.

Her fiance was graduated from Columbia Station High School in 1958 and will graduate in December from the university with a bachelor of science degree in genetics. He will then be commissioned as an ensign in the Navy.

The open church wedding will take place Dec. 16 at the First Church of Christ.

Mr., Mrs. Thomas Mick In Columbus After Nuptial

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Harold Mick are residing in Columbus following their marriage the afternoon of Sept. 29 at 2:30 o'clock in the First Evangelical and Reform Church of Lima.

The double - ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Richard Vitz before the altar decorated with palms and candles.

The bride is the former Miss Joyce Ann Hites, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clair H. Hites of Lima, and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Mick, 1187 Mick Rd., Wellsville.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of white imported English lace. The all - lace fitted bodice was fashioned with a soft pyramid-shaped neckline and three - quarter-length sleeves.

The bouffant skirt was enhanced by lace folds creating a bow effect in the back. She wore a short bouffant veil attached to a crown of lace trimmed with seed pearls and carried her paternal grandmother's white prayer book with an arrangement of garnet gold roses, lily of the valley and white feathered carnations.

Her sister, Miss Marjorie Hites, as maid-of-honor, wore a gown of pale blue nylon with fitted lace bodice, bouffant skirt, a fitted jacket with three - quarter - length sleeves. Her accessories were beige and a feathered headpiece with a short veil completed her attire. She carried a white prayer book with an arrangement of pink feathered carnations with short streamers.

Wayne Kearns of Columbus, formerly of Wellsville, served as best man. Jeff Hites, brother of the bride, was usher. Music by Mrs. John McNett, organist, included "I Love Thee," "Dreams" and "Ava Maria."

MRS. T. H. MICK
She Was Joyce Ann Hites.

The bride's mother was attired in a light sage green silk sheath dress with cinnamon brown accessories and a corsage of garnet gold roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a green floral sheath dress with black and green accessories and a corsage of white feathered carnations.

A reception followed in the social room with 50 guests served by Mrs. Margaret Crosson, Miss Sheila Lotz and Miss Zoe Roberts.

For traveling, the bride wore a beige one - piece knit dress with brown accessories and a corsage of garnet gold roses.

The bride was graduated from Lakeview high school, attended Ohio State University and is employed at the General Accident Insurance Co. of Columbus. The bridegroom, a graduate of Wellsville High School, is a senior at Ohio State University and is employed by the Juvenile Diagnostic Center in Columbus.

Photos Show Reds' Missile Sites In Cuba

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Defense Department released early today 14 aerial photographs of what it said were Soviet missile sites, bomber fields and patrol boats in Cuba.

The photographs were made public hours after some of the pictures had been released in London.

Some had been displayed by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara when he briefed newsmen on the Cuban crisis Monday night after President Kennedy announced an arms quarantine of Cuba.

There are three pictures of merchant ships which the Defense Department said were Soviet ships bound for Cuba carrying light jet bombers in crates visible on the decks.

One high-altitude shot the Pentagon describes as of a major airfield and notes in an enlarged portion a jet bomber almost assembled and 18 crates containing more of the IL28 bombers.

In another, seven Soviet PT boats are pointed out moored near an airfield. The Pentagon said the boats are armed with guided missile launchers.

Among the others were air photos of what the Pentagon described as an intermediate and medium-range missile bases, surface-to-air missile sites, a missile assembly depot and MIG21 jet fighters at a Cuban airfield.

Driver Fined For Car Mishap At Salineville

SALINEVILLE — Jerry Malone, 18, of R. D. 1, cited Sunday for reckless operation after his car plunged over a concrete wall into a shallow creek bed, was fined $50 and costs — with $40 suspended — by Mayor Stanley Fitch Tuesday night.

Malone with three other youths and a girl as passengers was driving along an alley just north of Main St. when the auto went over the wall, according to police.

Investors Eye Wall Street In Cuba Crisis

NEW YORK (AP)—Stock market investors tried today to anticipate how Wall Street will react now and in weeks to come to the Cuban crisis.

The market sagged on Monday's uncertainty, held firmer after the President spelled out the U.S. position, then suddenly sank badly.

The late selling rush Tuesday was linked by analysts to talk of a possible clash between U.S. and Russian ships at the Cuban blockade lines.

"It was scared selling," said Eldon Grimm, of Walston and Co., after the market closed. "People were afraid what would happen."

Other analysts cited additional factors, including the one that accumulative weakness had left the market ill-dequipped to cope with fresh bad news.

Stocks held fairly well on average through most of Tuesday until the final rush.

The late wave sent many stocks plunging and even the defense issues that had stood stoutly all day took a battering.

Averages took their biggest dips in months and prices sank toward the area of the year's June lows.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks slipped 4.4 to 208. The Dow Jones industrials average lost 10.54 to 558.06. Volume of 5.69 million shares was a far cry from the 2 million and 3 million days in recent weeks.

Halloween Dance Plans Discussed

Plans were furthered for a public Halloween dance next Wednesday night at a meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce project committee Tuesday night at the home of Richard Hunsicker of Wedgewood Ave.

The dance will be from 7 to 11 at the former American Paper Products building on Walnut St.

Costume is optional, but the Jaycees pointed out prizes will be awarded for the most original boy's costume, most original girl's costume, funniest boy and funniest girl. There is no age limit.

Parents are urged to bring their children.

Committee members present last night were Bill Orr, Ron Garland, Bob Miller, Hunsicker, Dale Kidd and Jack Woomer, chairman.

Agreement Reached During Hancock Trial

NEW CUMBERLAND — A civil suit filed in connection with the sale of an area tavern was settled by the plaintiff and defendant at a noon recess Tuesday after a day and a half of testimony in Hancock County Circuit Court.

The suit was filed by William J. McAvoy against Steve Yurka in a dispute over partnership and ownership of Club Daily Double on Route 66 north of here.

They had apparently entered into a partnership for operating the tavern in 1960. But the tavern was later purchased by Ted Zagula, and the dispute resulted.

Judge Ralph E. Pryor presided.

Woman Hurt In Home Fall

A Hammondsville area woman hurt in a fall down stairs Tuesday is in "fair" condition today at City Hospital where three other area residents were treated following separate mishaps.

Mrs. Maureen Lawrence, 24, of Hammondsville R. D. 1 suffered injuries of the right shoulder, arm and neck in the fall.

Mrs. Mary Davis, 70, of 123 Thompson Ave. was treated for a fractured left wrist and abrasions of the forehead and nose suffered in a fall down stairs at home.

George Jones, 16, son of George Jones of Wyoming Ave., was treated for injuries suffered in a fall on a tile floor at the high school lockerroom.

William Smith, 14, son of William Smith of Skyview Manor, received a fractured finger while playing football.

75 Attend Democrat Rally At Hookstown

Approximately 75 attended a Democratic party rally Tuesday night in the Grange Hall at Hookstown.

Ernie Kline, Beaver Falls announcer, was principal speaker. Others were Charles Stone and Beryl Klein, assemblymen from the 25th District; Eli Corak, county chairman, and John Neeley, recorder.

Corak gave instructions for precinct work on Election Day and announced precinct workers will meet Tuesday night at the home of John Barrett, Greene Township committeeman. Mrs. Donald Graham is the township committeewoman.

The famous "Nelly Bly" was the nom de plume of Elizabeth C. Seaman, an American newspaperwoman whose most sensational assignment was a round-the-world trip in 1889.

Colder Weather Due Remainder Of Week

Regardless of what the calendar says, winter - like weather will prevail in the East Liverpool area through next weekend.

The district got a glimpse of winter Tuesday in wet snow mixed with rain and a few flurries for the first this season and the Ohio weatherman said more is expected today, tonight and Thursday.

Temperatures may dip below freezing tonight for the coldest mark of autumn. The downtown had 37 at 7 a. m. today but tonight's low may be 30 to 35. The high range today was forecast at 43 to 49. The five-day forecast is for temperatures of 11 to 13 degrees below normal with fresh outbreaks of cold air expected Thursday, Saturday and early next week. There will be scattered showers and snow flurries for the period.

Gymnastics Clinic Slated For Hancock

Classes in Hancock County schools will be dismissed Nov. 5 while teachers attend a gymnastics clinic in connection with the system's physical education program.

The County Board of Education Tuesday night approved the clinic to be held from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. at New Cumberland High School for all instructors.

E. F. Beyer of a gymnastics equipment company in Grand Rapids, Mich., will present demonstrations, using students from county schools.

Supt. Robert H. Hall said the clinic is being held to provide an opportunity for instructors to see teaching procedures in gymnastics demonstrated by an expert.

There will be demonstrations of teaching exercises without gym equipment, tumbling and falling, vaulting, use of the parallel bars and trampoline.

Classes will also be dismissed the following day — Nov. 6—for the general election, Supt. Hall reminded.

The board also authorized Mrs. Ruth McPherson use of New Cumberland High School Nov. 5 for a 4-H officers training school Mrs. Thelma Daugherty, president of the Classroom Teachers Association, was authorized to attend a regional conference Nov. 1-2 in Louisville, Ky. Other requests were granted by the Board.

Dr. W. Dale Williams, president, presided. Next meeting is Nov. 8.

21 At Kiwanis Event At Chester

Twenty-one attended a meeting of the Chester Kiwanis Club Tuesday night at the City Hall auditorium at which George Shaw, advertising manager of The Review, spoke on recent developments in the newspaper business.

Shaw outlined various production changes, including those at The Review, which have occurred in the business in the past 15 years. He was introduced by DeMar Miller, program chairman.

Jerry D'Angelo and Anthony Bernardi of the Lions Club spoke briefly on the minstrel show to be held Nov. 17 as a benefit for the City Park. They requested Kiwanis Club assistance.

Paul Finley, president, appointed Russell Davis, Alvin (Pete) Arner and Alvin Fineman to meet with the club at the Lions meeting Thursday to discuss plans for the minstrel.

Dave Jordan, Key Club member, was a guest.

Glenmoor Legion Will Give Dinner

Plans for a coverdish Veterans Day dinner Nov. 10 were made at the meeting of Glenmoor American Legion Post 736 Tuesday night at the post home.

A dance will follow. The speaker will be named later.

Ernest Slagle Jr. was enrolled as a new member.

The post also authorized purchase of uniforms for Bill Moore, scoutmaster, and Joe Arcuragi, assistant scoutmaster of Troop 42 sponsored the post.

Floyd Beatty was appointed sergeant-at-arms succeeding Warren Rogers, who resigned. Robert Rudy, commander, presided.

Next meeting is Nov. 6.

Deaths and Funerals

Retired Water Employe Dies

Daniel M. Dickson, 83, father of Mrs. Bryon Thomas of East Liverpool, died Tuesday at 12:55 p. m. at Little Traverse Hospital in Petoskey, Mich., following a lingering illness.

He made his summer home in the Indian River (Mich.) area for the past 15 years, and resided with his daughter on Anderson Blvd.

He was born in East Liverpool Aug. 27, 1879, to James T. Dickson and Jane B. Dickson. He was a retired stationary engineer for the city water department. He was a member of the Second United Presbyterian Church and Odd Fellows Lodge 880 since 1905. He was married to Nettie Neininger in 1905 in East Liverpool.

His daughter is the only survivor.

The body will be at the Schneider Funeral Home in Indian River until 4 p. m. today. Graveside services will be held by Daniel Duerksen, pastor of the Yellow Creek United Presbyterian Church, Thursday at 3:30 p. m. at the Yellow Creek Cemetary near Wellsville, where the Odd Fellows will also hold services.

The family requests that tributes take the form of donations to the American Cancer Society.

Mrs. Gerald Landis

Mrs. Madeline L. Landis, 47, of Steubenville R. D. 1, wife of Gerald Landis, died Tuesday morning at 10:40 at Columbus University Hospital, where she had been a patient about a month. She had been seriously ill three months.

Mrs. Landis was born March 13, 1915, in Weirton, daughter of Mrs. Adeline Chedester Thomas of Weirton and the late Oscar H. Thomas, who died Nov. 22, 1960.

She lived in Steubenville for 13 years, moving from Wellsville. She was married Oct. 13, 1934. She was a member of the Knoxville Presbyterian Church and its Missionary Society.

In addition to her mother and husband, she leaves a daughter, Mrs. Carole Eddy of Steubenville; a son, James W. Landis of Cincinnati and one grandchild.

Services will be held Friday at 3 p. m. at the Steel - Wolfe Funeral Home in Weirton by the Rev. Roger Bush. Burial will be in Springhill Cemetery, Wellsville.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 7:30 tonight.

Harold Manley

Services for Harold A. Manley, a native of East Liverpool, who traveled with carnivals, will be held Friday at 2 p. m. at the Dawson Funeral Home.

The Rev. Irwin E. Jennings, pastor of the Calvary Methodist Church, will officiate. Burial will be in Riverview Cemetery.

He died Sunday evening at the Lady of the Lakes Hospital at Baton Rouge, La., after a brief illness.

Friends may call at the funeral home Thursday.

Mrs. Dealia Plate

Services for Mrs. Dealia M. Plate of Oakmont Ave., Oakmont, who died Tuesday morning at her home, will be held Thursday at 10:30 a. m. at the Martin Funeral Home.

The Rev. James Hunton, pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene, will officiate. Burial will be in Springhill Cemetery, Wellsville.

Friends may call at the funeral home this afternoon and tonight.

7 Baptist Youths Due At Session

Seven members of the Junior High group of the First Baptist Church will attend the Junior Jamboree Saturday at Alliance.

They are Bruce Karger, Bruce Garver, Billy Tittle, Dick Blatchford, Patty Wagers and Sharon Cowfer and Mrs. Robert Blatchford.

Nine Baptist Junior High Jamborees are held throughout the state during October. Baptist churches of Cleveland, Akron and Wooster Associations will participate.

The Rev. Albert Rodenhausen will be the director and Mrs. John Chadwick will be the song leader.

Other participants include Mrs. Edwin Bayley, who will lead the group in the use of "play reading;" the Rev. John Crane, pastor of the Steubenville First church, vesper hour leader; Miss Barbara MacCubrey, director of Christian Education of the Akron First church, recreation; Miss Bettina Gilbert, director of Christian education at the Goodyear church in Akron who will lead youth counselors and prospective adult leaders of Junior Highers.

Awards will be given to the youth groups that have reached suggested goals set up by the state committee.

Speaks At Wellsville

Rep. Hays Airs Gravity Of Situation Over Cuba

The gravity of the Cuban situation was discussed by Rep. Wayne L. Hays, principal speaker, at a Democratic rally held Tuesday night at the Wellsville Jaycee Hall by the Wellsville Women's Democratic Club.

Hays outlined the U-2 flights made to secure information on weapons installations. He said after obtaining the photos, the only thing the President could do was to make a move to protect the hemisphere. All of the United States east of the Mississippi is vulnerable and large cities could be wiped out if the missiles are launched.

Hays commented he was not speaking with pessimism or fear, but pointed out the country has to face reality and get behind the President. The U. S. government has made it crystal clear to Khrushchev that the government has been pushed as far as it is going and it now is up to Russia as to whether or not we are going to have peace or war, Hays declared.

Hays said he has been alerted by Washington to be available at all times. This is due to his work as a member of the foreign affairs committee. He also spoke on his work in NATO, which he said is the oldest military alliance for peace in the history of the world. Hays said the greatest service any congressman can do for his district is to work for peace.

Hays also listed his past accomplishments in Congress, particularly in obtaining federal funds to aid the district, such as highways and dams.

Hays also touched on the controversial Post Office-City Hall issue in Wellsville. He said the issue is being submitted in an American way by placing it on the ballot for a vote. He said he will do all in his power to get Wellsville a Post Office, even if the issue doesn't pass.

About 175 attended. Don Gosney of Columbiana, county Democratic chairman, was master of ceremonies.

Candidates present included County Auditor Kenneth Bell, Commissioner Frank Wilson, State Sen. Edmund A. Sargus, Lawrence Stacey, for state representative, County Judges Herbert Arfman and Luther Donbar and Atty. John Lynch, candidate for judge of the District Court of Appeals.

Mrs. Kay Drago, president of the Women's Democratic Club, gave the welcome.

Mrs. Dorothy Weekley was in charge of lunch and decorations, assisted by executive members, Mrs. Drago, Mrs. Connie Drago, Mrs. Grace Wilson, Mrs. Dollie Brophy, Mrs. Elsie Wilson and Miss Grace Woodward. Mrs. Catherine Frontz was in charge of registration.

The speakers' table was decorated with fall flowers by Mrs. Betty Stoffel.

Gov. Michael DiSalle is scheduled to speak at a noon luncheon Thursday at the First Christian Church. The Wellsville Democratic central committeemen are in charge.

City Hunter Fined, Jailed

A city hunter was fined Tuesday by Squire John D. Herron of New Cumberland and his two brothers cited on charges of giving false information.

Lester Bragg of East Liverpool was fined $50 and costs and given 30 days in jail on a charge of carrying hunting equipment in the woods without having first obtained a non-resident hunting license.

He was also placed under $500 bond for a hearing Friday on a second charge of providing false information to obtain a hunting license.

William Bragg, 41, of Newell posted $500 bond for a hearing Friday on charges of giving false information at the hearing for his brother, Lester, and for giving false information to obtain a hunting license.

Another brother, Aaron Bragg of New Cumberland R. D. 2 posted $500 bond for a hearing Friday on a charge of giving false information at the hearing Tuesday.

The trio was cited by Walter McCrea, county conservation officer, on State Route 66.

Crate Mishap Hurts Driver

A Wellsville resident was treated at City Hospital Tuesday morning for a lacerated eye apparently struck by flying glass from the windshield of his truck — smashed by an empty wooden crate dislodged from a truck he was following.

Robert Koontz, 34, of R. D. 1 received the injury when the crate "flew off" the rear of a truck of Ivan Frame, 38, of 916 Fairview St., East Liverpool, on Route 30 near Chester.

Hancock County sheriff's deputies said the flying crate smashed the windshield of the 1959 model truck operated by Koontz.

Frame was cited on a charge of driving with an unsafe load and was fined $10 and costs at a hearing before Squire Lee Ralich of Weirton.

Deputies said the mishap occurred at 11 a. m. on Route 30 near the junction with Route 2.

The Maltese Islands, lying between Europe and Africa, with about 2,554 persons per square mile are generally conceded to be the most densely populated in the world.

Frederick Appointed Palestine's Fire Chief

EAST PALESTINE — Frank Frederick, lineman with the city power department, has been named acting fire chief by Mayor Robert Harding, filling a post vacant since the death of Fire Chief Glenn Libert Oct. 6.

Frederick, 179 Glenwood Ave., has been assistant fire chief. Mayor Harding said a Civil Service examination will be conducted later to fill the position, which pays $3,065.

John V. Singer, brother of Isaac Singer, the sewing machine magnate, was shipwrecked on Padre Island, Texas, in 1847. He decided to take advantage of the abundant grass and shallow fresh-water wells and stay on the island to raise cattle.

Permit Shift Asked

SALEM — The Ohio Department of Liquor Control at Columbus is processing an application of transfer of a C-2 permit from Louis A. Mattevi of the Centennial Market at the rear of 694 S. Union St. to Alice Kendrick of the Kendrick Centennial Market at the same address. The application was filed Oct. 15. The permit is for carry-out of high powered beer and wine.

McBride Leads Another Winning Team At Stanton

DON MCBRIDE
Successful Stanton Coach.

By CHUCK CRONIN
Review Sports Writer

If the success of a football coach is measured in terms of producing a winner with limited experience on hand—and it frequently is—mark down Stanton Local's Don McBride as successful with a capital S.

The soft-spoken Ohio University graduate piloted the Red Raiders to an 8-1 record in his first year there in 1961, then waved farewell to the bulk of his schoolboy stars who lost only to arch-rival Springfield.

Who could expect anything but mediocrity in the next campaign with only three lettermen returning?

Probably none but McBride, who apparently unlocked the secret between commencement rites in the spring and the autumn gridiron season.

McBride's club currently sports a 4-1-1 record — including a 22-0 victory over Springfield — and is coming on strong behind the passing of quarterback Scott Porter and the running of fullback John Pearson.

The Raiders hurdled Newell easily on Saturday, 40-16, with Porter throwing three touchdown passes.

This week the surprising Raiders turn their attention to Brilliant's Blue Devils, whom they oppose Saturday afternoon at 2:30 at Brilliant. McBride's charges are a strong favorite, with Brilliant having a 1-6 record, the lone victory over winless Yorkville, 18-2.

The youthful McBride would probably be the last to mention it, but another victory Saturday would boost his career won-lost record to a flashy 39-3-3!

But the big game of the week is at Columbiana where the unbeaten Clippers (6-0) are set for a do-or-die struggle against Louisville (7-0).

They tangle Friday night with the Tri-County League crown and statewide prestige hanging in the balance. Each is 4-0 in the loop and is ranked high among Ohio's more than 600 squads.

Columbiana, Louisville In Big One

Here's This Week's District Grid Card

Thursday

Wellsville at Jefferson Union
Wayne at Newell

Friday

Bellaire St. John's at East Liverpool
Midland at New Brighton
St. Mary's at Chester
New Cumberland at Mt. Pleasant
Poland at East Palestine
Leetonia at Lisbon
Louisville at Columbiana
Salem at Boardman
South Side at Northwestern

Saturday

Beaver Local vs. West Branch at Salem
United at Salineville
Crestview at Western Reserve
Stanton Local at Brilliant

The Clips barely remained eligible for a shot at the league crown in edging Sebring last week, 15-14, with a placement kick by All-Ohio candidate Dale Murphy in the final seconds deciding the outcome. Meanwhile, Louisville was tuning up for the title clash by walloping Lisbon, 54-8, with an awesome offensive punch.

Elsewhere, Wellsville High's Tigers move against Jefferson Union and Newell entertains Wayne on Thursday night, switched from Friday because of a teachers conference in Jefferson County.

Wellsville (1-6) travels to JU (1-5) battered from a 32-12 defeat last week. Observers claim the Yellow Jackets have the best quarterback in the Ohio Valley in Dave Marshall, 170-pound senior, and a threat in halfback Frank Marcino, 170-pound junior.

Jefferson Union operates from a "pro-type" offense, with split ends and flanking halfbacks, for added offensive punch. And it apparently works, although the defense has been anything but solid.

The Jackets have been defeated by Wintersville, 46-20; Cadiz, 40-30; Toronto, 28-14; Mingo, 30-22, and Follansbee, 19-13. The lone victory was over Springfield, 28-8.

The game will mark Wellsville's second in Buckeye Border Conference competition, and the Tigers could remain in contention for the first-year crown with a victory. Coach Ken Woods' charges are 1-0 in loop play, and each of the other league teams has lost at least once.

In the only other Thursday game, Newell (1-6) drops the curtain on another disasterous campaign in entertaining Wayne. And the record could worsen. The invading Wolves are 4-1-2 and have a great quarterback in Dave Galbraith. The only loss was to Dillonvale, 30-0.

One other school ends its regular season Friday night. South Side High's Rams finish up with Northwestern and are assured of a losing season regardless of the outcome. The Rams are 0-6-1.

In another Friday game, two former Follansbee High athletes test their coaching skills as Ralph Anastasio of Bellaire St. Johns brings his club to face Coach Bob Hedmond's East Liverpool Potters.

The Irish lay claim to distinction by having played strong Bellaire to a scoreless standoff. The Potters, 1-5, will attempt to rebound from a 44-0 defeat to highly-ranked Steubenville Big Red.

Midland's Leopards find themselves in a showdown battle with New Brighton for the Section 8 title Friday night at New Brighton. The Leopards appear to have jelled in a 35-12 win over Wellsville Sept. 28 and have since won four straight. Coach Charles Polce's squad suffered reversals in the first three games before using Wellsville as a springboard to better things.

New Cumberland (5-2) guns for its fifth straight and sixth of the year against Mt. Pleasant (2-3-2). Though favored, the Blue Raiders face one of the valley's better fullbacks in Dan Stephans, who has accumulated nearly all of the Mounties' 50 points.

Chester's Panthers oppose St. Mary's in a bid to apply the brakes to a skid that started Oct. 5. The Panthers are 3-4 and have lost three in succession.

There are two other games in the Tri-County League Friday with Leetonia at Lisbon and Poland at East Palestine. But the attention is focused on Louisville-Columbiana.

In action Saturday are Beaver Local (5-2) against West Branch at Salem, United (2-5) at Salineville (2-4-1) and Crestview (4-3) at Western Reserve.

Meanwhile, New Cumberland's Jim Burskey came from far down the list to vault into second place in the district individual scoring race with four touchdowns last week. But he's still far off the leader — Lisbon's Dave Rose —who got a touchdown and a conversion to increase his production to 76. From there back, the leaders are bunched fairly close — Dale Murphy (59), Bill Beery (54), Paul Conrad (48), George Wiersbicki (47) and George Gaydos (46). Allen Pettit of New Cumberland shows 42.

Robin Roberts Is Comeback Player In AL

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Baltimore's Robin Roberts, named the American League Comeback Player of the Year in the annual Associated Press poll, says getting a chance to pitch regularly made him effective.

Cast off by the Philadelphia Phillies, with whom he was one of the National League's outstanding pitchers, and by the New York Yankees, Roberts said he was pleased about his being chosen in the poll.

Members of the Baseball Writers' Association gave him 81 of the 106 votes cast. Pitcher Dick Donovan of Cleveland got nine and pitcher Hank Aguirre of Detroit and second baseman Billy Moran of the Los Angeles Angels three each.

Winner of 234 games in 14 seasons with the Phillies, Roberts was sold to the Yankees last fall and released May 8. The Orioles signed him as a free agent two weeks later.

He won 10 games and lost nine for the Orioles. More important his earned run average 2.77, was the second lowest in the league. With the Phillies the season before he won only one game and lost 10.

Potters Win 3-Way Run

East Liverpool High's cross-country squad turned in an outstanding effort to defeat Cannon-McMillan and Hopewell in a triangular meet Tuesday afternoon at the Aliquippa golf course.

Coach Frank Chan's Potters finished first in accumulating only 24 points. Cannon - McMillan was second with 36 and Hopewell trailed badly with 77.

Jacob Shermabs of C-M was the first runner across the line, stepping off the two and a quarter mile distance in 11:42. But the Potters won to gain revenge for finishing behind C-M in a meet Saturday in Bellaire.

Bruce McCoy of ELHS led the Potters by finishing second, followed closely by Roger Linville and Curt Battistelli, also of the Blue and White.

Dick Deem was sixth and Ron Roush, ninth, for East Liverpool. Sherman Phelps was 11th and Joe Massey 12th.

This contingent, plus Joe Ingram, will represent East Liverpool in the district meet Saturday afternoon in St. Clairsville. Another good effort would qualify the Potters for the state cross-country meet Nov. 13.

Northwestern's Myers Leads Nation's Passers

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
Associated Press Sports Wrter

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—Sophomore Tom Myers of Northwestern is such a brilliant passer that two coaches junked their football offenses and built new ones around him with great success.

When Myers was a freshman at Troy, Ohio, High School, Bob Ferguson was a senior. Ferguson went on to become an All-America fullback at Ohio State. When he graduated from Troy, coach Lou Juillerat switched from the grind-em-out ground attack to an aerial game tailored for Myers.

Myers completed 73 touchdown passes at Troy, 32 in his senior year.

Northwestern coach Ara Parseghian, a native of Akron whose recruiting ties in Ohio were formed when he was mentor at Miami of Ohio, had Myers well scouted at Troy. Parseghian plucked him from the clutches of a dozen or so other college coaches.

This season, with a rebuilt offense, the Wildcats are unbeaten, lead the nation's major colleges in passing with an average of 230.3 yards a game and are ranked No. 3 in The Associated Press poll.

The 6-foot, 183-pound Myers, a business education student, has hit on 61 of 90 aerials for 811 yards and 8 touchdowns.

"He is the best passer I've ever had," says Parseghian. "There was no real wild recruiting in getting him, although he was fairly well in demand. Some coaches thought he was not strong enough physically to play in the Big Ten. We knew how good he was as a passer. In spring drills he proved his ability and we overhauled our complete offense to fit it."

"I'm just lucky to have some receivers who do a great job, because a majority of my passes haven't been too good," Myers says.

Parseghian has surrounded his triggerman with some outstanding pass catchers. Fourteen different players have been his targets, five different ones catching touchdown shots.

Buckeyes Picked To Beat Wisconsin; Texas Favored

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Reverting to the blindfold and lucky stab method of picking college football winners after missing on 13 of 56 games last week. That's an average of .786 and pulled the season's totals down to 197-72 for .791.

Texas over Rice: The Longhorns haven't lost and the Owls haven't won this season.

Alabama over Tulsa: Joe Namath must be one of the best collegiate passers in the country today.

Northwestern over Notre Dame: Notre Dame is powerful, strong and slow. Northwestern is powerful, strong and fast.

Southern California over Illinois: The Illini have taken their lumps all season but nothing to those they will get trying to stop Trojan fullback Ben Wilson.

Ohio State over Wisconsin: Wisconsin has a great passing attack but Ohio State has Paul Warfield, a great defender against passes. The Badgers haven't won at Columbus since grandpa watched in 1918.

Louisiana State over Florida: The Louisiana Tigers have Jerry Stovall.

Washington over Oregon: But the Huskies will be too busy to think about next weekend's encounter with Southern California which decides the coast title and the Rose Bowl designation.

Arkansas over Hardin Simmons: The Texans have won but once in three years.

Michigan State over Indiana: Saimes, Lewis and Rubick give the Michigan State Spartans a real triple threat over the bench-poor Hoosiers.

Mississippi over Vanderbilt: They are playing this one in Memphis to spare the feelings of the Commodore followers.

Auburn over Clemson: The sophomoric Auburn team came of age in last week's triumph over Georgia Tech.

Penn State over California: California switched to the wing T this year but continues to fly in the wrong direction.

Others:

Ohio University over Buffalo; Cincinnati over Richmond.

Commissioner Asks Apology From Hayes

CHICAGO (AP)—Commissioner Bill Reed went to bat for Big Ten football officials Tuesday and chastized Ohio State coach Woody Hayes at the same time.

Reed demanded and is getting a written apology from Hayes for making public statements in which the Buckeye coach criticized officiating in Ohio State's 18-14 loss to Northwestern Saturday.

Hayes showed films of the game on a television program in Columbus Sunday and three times repeated one phase of the film in which he contended an official had made an error in calling pass interference.

Hayes later was quoted as saying, "We were cheated out of a touchdown. We didn't get quite a fair shake from the officials."

"I consider all this very distressing," said Reed. "We always back up officials' judgment. They must make split second decisions and we consider such public statements as Hayes' as undermining this effort."

In Columbus, Ohio, Hayes said he had complied with Reed's demand for an apoligy.

"What the commissioner wants," Hayes said, "he gets."

Wisconsin Is Nation's No. 1 Scorer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—What was that they were saying before the season about the soft schedule Ohio State's football team had this year?

The latest NCAA major college statistics show that this Saturday's Buckeye foe, Wisconsin, leads the nation in scoring with 39.5 points a game and is fourth in total offense with 399.8 yards per game.

Northwestern, which beat Ohio State last week, is No. 1 in the nation in passing offense with 230.3 yards a game and third in total offense with 402.3 yards each outing.

Oregon, Ohio State's Nov. 17 foe, leads all major schools in total offense with 429.0 yards a game and is fourth in rushing with a 292.4 average.

The Buckeyes themselves don't stand too badly in the statistics circuit despite their 2-2 won-lost record. They're 10th in total offense with 374.8 yards a game and eighth in scoring with a 28.3 average, thanks to their 314.3-yard rushing average which is second only to Michigan State's 362.8.

Tiger Dethrones Fullmer By Taking Unanimous Decision In Title Fight

By BOB MYERS
Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The long reign of Gene Fullmer as king of the World Boxing Association middleweight division was over today, terminated by a mauler and brawler much in the same mold as the Utah strong boy.

The new ruler is Dick Tiger of Nigeria, the British Empire champion of the 160-pounders, who won the title by unanimous decision Tuesday night in 15 rough, bruising rounds before a crowd of 11,600 in Candlestick Park.

There was blood, as is usual with a Fullmer fight, but no knockdowns. There was drama, as a host of Tiger's countrymen, resplendent in the flowing robes of their native land, swarmed into the ring and hoisted their idol to their shoulders.

Fullmer, unbeaten in 17 straight ring engagements, met defeat in the eighth defense of the crown he had won in this same city by a 14-round knockout over Carmen Basilio Aug. 28, 1959.

Fullmer fought the last 4½ rounds in a familiar Fullmer pattern. He was cut and bleeding from gashes over both eyes, but he was still flailing away with both fists at the final bell.

Fullmer will meet the 33-year-old Nigerian again Jan. 19 in either Bozeman, Mont., or Las Vegas, Nev.

Does he think he can whip Tiger in the rematch?

"If I feel like I can't, there won't be one," said Fullmer. "Right now I don't feel I can't.

"Now I'm the champion I think I'll stay the champion," was the response from Tiger.

A modest fellow, Tiger had praise for Fullmer. "After three or four rounds I knew I was tangling with the champion."

There was a disagreement in another area. Fullmer said he was accidentally butted in the ninth round. It slashed open a small cut inflicted in the second round.

Tiger claimed the ninth-round gash, which brought blood pouring down to Fullmer's shiny white trunks, came from a solid smash with a right hand.

Referee Frankie Carter had it 10-1, judge Jack Downey 9-5 and judge Vern Bybee 7-5. Under the California system of one or more points to the winner of a round, none for the loser and zero for an even round.

Tiger is the second Nigerian to claim a world title, one he must share with America's Paul Pender, who is recognized in Massachusetts, New York and portions of Europe.

Tiger, whose real name is Richard Ihetu, has been boxing since 1955. His record now is 46 victories, 12 defeats and two draws.

Eleven American Leaguers batted above .300 during 1962.

Wilt Scores 56 In Debut In San Francisco Uniform

By JACK STEVENSON
Assocated Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—There was no mistaking the star as the Warriors made their National Basketball Association debut in San Francisco a winning one Tuesday night with a 140-113 victory over the Detroit Pistons.

For Wilt Chamberlain, a 7-foot 1-inch ace, who set league scoring records for the team in Philadelphia the past seasons, scored 56 points in the new uniform to pace the assault at the Cow Palace.

Facing competition from the Gene Fullmer-Dick Tiger middlematch in nearby Candlestick Park the inaugural drew only 5,215.

As new coach Bob Feerick started an all-veteran lineup, Ted Luckenbill took the honor of scoring the first points and went on to tally nine of the first 11.

In the other NBA action Tueday, the Cincinnati Royals rallied to edge the Los Angeles Lakers 116-115 and in another one-point affair, St. Louis beat Chicago 110-109. Syracuse beat New York 123-119.

Those results left Syracuse with a 2-0 record atop the Eastern Division and St. Louis with the same leading mark in the Western.

San Francisco opened later than the other teams and the Pistons made a determined bid early in the second half to win their first game in three tries. But after the count was closed to 71-67 for the Warriors, Chamberlain's jump shot began hitting and he sank eight field goals in the quarter.

NCAA Reports Less Violence On Gridiron

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Most of the college football coaches around the country—with the possible exception of those in the Southern Conference—have gotten the message from the NCAA rules committee with the result that there is less violence on the field this year.

An Associated Press survey showed today that the three-pronged campaign started last month by the NCAA Football Rules Committee, Coaches' Association and Commissioners' Association has brought about a marked improvement in conduct on the field.

In the Southern Conference, though, the league office was forced to start a campaign of its own two weeks ago—fearing that there was too much violence on the field for the safety of the players.

Since the anti-violence edict went into effect in the conference, officials have stepped off 1,052 yards in penalties in seven games—an average of 150.3 per game. Last Saturday, in three conference games, a total of 609 yards in penalties was assessed, an average of more than 200 a game.

Said Executive Officer Tom Hamilton of the Big Six on the West Coast:

"Before the season started, we warned coaches, athletic directors and officials that strict penalties would be assessed for excessive roughness, especially piling on.

"My observation is that there has been far less piling on, not so much because of the penalties inflicted, but because coaches took care of the situation."

In the Big Ten, a spokesman said officials had been instructed to call personal fouls early in all games to set the pattern, and get the game under control.

Jim Weaver, Atlantic Coast Conference Commissioner, said his league has had no trouble for the past couple of years. He pointed out that AAC officials were instructed last August—even before the NCAA campaign—to call an automatic 15-yard piling-on penalty in any case where a player is hit late.

Howard Grubbs, secretary of the Southwest Conference, said strict calling of fouls for rough play has been emphasized to officials, coaches and players with the result that there have been fewer penalties called for rough play.

Cowboys' Clarke Is Top Pass Catcher In NFL

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Don Hutson, Elroy Hirsch, Frank Clarke—Frank who???

Frank Clarke is the name. It may not ring a bell in your home town but it is a big name in Dallas. I fthe Cowboys' flanker back keeps on catching passes it will be a big name coast-to-coast.

In six games Clarke has caught 11 touchdown passes. He still has eight games to go. Hutson set the National Football League record of 17 for Green Bay in 1942. Hirsch tied it for Los Angeles in 1951 on a 12-game schedule.

Clarke is another one of the men who got away from Paul Brown at Cleveland, like Bobby Mitchell. Placed on the draft list after three luckless years with the Browns, the former Colorado star wound up in Dallas when the league expanded in 1960.

Clarke is the leading scorer in the NFL with 66 points, passing idle Paul Hornung of Green Bay. In three years with the Browns he caught a total of 10 passes and didn't score a point.

"I wasn't happy to leave Cleveland," said Clarke in Dallas. "I felt I had left a great deal unfinished. But the more I thought I realized that Dallas was the ideal situation where I would have more of a chance.

"Eddie (LeBaron) worked with me and taught me tricks. So did Tom Landry, our coach. Now I go in there thinking I can catch them all."

The Cowboys own a 3-2-1 record and are making serious gestures toward the title in the Eastern Conference.

Fight Marks NHL Contest

CHICAGO (AP)—Reg Fleming of the Chicago Black Hawks was unhappy over the incidents marking Tuesday nght's 4-4 tie with the Montreal Canadiens in a fight-filled National Hockey League game.

Fleming and Gilles Tremblay of the Canadiens drew match penalties after engaging in a stick fight. As a result the Hawks had to play shorthanded for 10 minutes and the Canadiens for 5 minutes.

Fleming received the extra 5 minutes for drawing blood when he slashed open Tremblay's forehead. The severe cut required 35 stitches. Both players will have to go before league president Clarence Campbell and each will probably draw a fine of at least $100.

"All I tried to do was defend myself," moaned Fleming. "He checked me before the whistle blew and I looked to Referee Frank Udvari for some sort of decision. Udvari didn't do a thing and Tremblay kept swinging so I had to come back at him in self defense. I don't think I should have been given an extra five minutes."

Udvari later said he didn't see the start of the fight in the second period but gave Fleming the additional 5 minutes for drawing blood.

The game was the only one in the NHL.

Fight Results

SAN FRANCISCO—Dick Tiger, 159, Nigeria, outpointed Gene Fullmer, 160, West Jordan, Utah, 15 (Tiger won World Boxing Association middleweight title).

HOUSTON—Cleveland Williams, 209½, Houston, knocked out Dave Bailey, 206, Philadelphia, 5; Rip Randall, 148, Houston, outpointed Nolan Duplessis, 144½, New Orleans, 10.

BOSTON — Joe Denucci, 162, Newton, Mass., stopped Vernon Lamar, 158, Somerset, N.J., 9.

NEW ORLEANS — Phil David, 130, Westwego, La., outpointed Manuel Ochoa, 129¼, Mexico, 10.

NEW YORK—Joe Salci, 145½, Wilkes Barre, Pa., outpointed Carlos Quiles, 142¼, New York, 8.

HONOLULU — Gaspar Ortega, 148½, Mexico, stopped Stan Harrington, 149½, Honolulu, 8.

Fight's Promoters Take Beating At Gate

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Promoters Norman Rothschild and Bennie Ford apparently took a financial beating on Tuesday night's World Boxing Association middleweight title bout.

Only 11,600 showed up at Candlestick Park to watch Dick Tiger outpoint Gene Fullmer, and they paid a gross of only $101,000.

Rothschild said before the fight that $155,000 was his break-even figure. Officials did not announce the net gate.

Fullmer was to get 45 per cent of the receipts and Tiger a flat $25,000.

Kin Of Gene Fullmer Stricken At Fight

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The father-in-law of dethroned middleweight champion Gene Fullmer was stricken Tuesday night while watching the bout between Fullmer and Dick Tiger at Candlestick Park and was taken to a hospital.

A Franklin Hospital spokesman declined to reveal the nature of the ailment or condition of Leroy Halt, who was reported to have been carried from Candlestick Park at about the time the fight was ending.

The average annual precipitation in the United States is about 29 inches.

Queen Candidate Applications Due

Girls from the Chester - Newell areas entered in West Vrginia's Centennial Queen contest are to present their applications to the sponsoring clubs by Saturday.

The West Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs is sponsoring contests in each of the 55 counties. A state centennial queen will be chosen from the county winners to reign during the 1963 celebration.

The contest is open to single girls who are high school graduates and who are at least 18 and will be no older than 26 by Jan. 1. Contestants must have resided in the state five years.

Application forms are to be turned over to the Chester Arts Club, Chester Civic Club, Chester Women's Club, Chester Junior Women's Club and the Newell Women's Club.

The county's representative will be decided Nov. 17 at 8 p. m. at Weir High School. The contestants will attend an informal luncheon with the judges at 1:30.

Brigham Young Back Holds Offensive Lead

NEW YORK (AP)—Eldon Fortie, a 167-pound tailback, is making his weight felt with his all-around play for Brigham Young University.

For the fourth consecutive week Fortie held his total offense lead in the NCAA Service Bureau statistics released today. The BYU senior has picked up 718 yards on the ground and 506 in the air for a 1,224 total. Terry Baker of Oregon State is second at 1,053.

Fortie's rushing also gives him first place in that department with Pete Pedro of West Texas State second at 641 yards. Dick Shiner of Maryland is the passing leader with 70 completions, four more than George Mira of Miami, Fla.

Mel Harder Signs His 36th Indian Contract

CLEVELAND (AP)—Mel Harder, who has spent more than half of his life as a player and pitching coach for the Cleveland Indians, has signed his 36th contract with them. That's a club longevity record.

The 53-year-oid Harder, who won 223 games and lost 186 while playing for five managers, signed the contract Tuesday. He has coached under seven managers. Birdie Tebbets, who will direct the Indians next year, will be the eighth.

To Honor Ex-Coach

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Ernie Godfrey, the grand old man of Ohio college football, as he's getting to be known, will be honored at this weekend's Wittenberg University homecoming celebration. Godfrey was head coach at Wittenberg from 1916 to 1928 with time out for World War I service, and was Ohio State University assistant coach from 1929 to 1961.

East End Congregation Host

150 Expected At Church Youth 'Session' Saturday

More than 150 young people from 31 area Christian churches are expected at a "Fall Round-up Of Youth" all day Saturday at the Second Church of Christ in East End. It is open to youth from the ninth grade through college age.

The event will consist of special music, classes and speakers, including a doctor and a nurse, Dan Maggianetti of Youngstown, former safety - service director here, and an official from the Cincinnati Bible Seminary, Eugene Wiggington.

Several other area ministers either will speak or conduct classes.

The theme is "Christ In You-th." W. Earl Shaw, host minister, said several committees consisting of youth and adults are in charge of the arrangements.

The registration will open at 9 a. m. Classes during the morning session will be in charge of Dr. Willam J. Horger, Mrs. James Smith, a registered nurse, Dan Davis, minister of the East Palestine church, and Frank Lillie, minister of the Columbiana church. J. Fenton Messenger, minister of the Morland church at Canton, will give the kick-off message.

Dr. Horger and Mrs. Smith are listed among the special features of the rally. They will speak on "Youth Wants to Know," with Dr. Horger addressing the boys and Mrs. Smith speaking to the girls.

Tom Hess, minister of the Fredericktown church, will discuss "After High School, What?" and Herb Hill, minister of Hillman St. church at Youngstown, will speak on "Building a Christian Home" during the afternoon session.

A film, "Mechanized Death," will be presented by an officer from the Lisbon barracks of the State Highway Patrol. It is being featured for the afternoon session.

A luncheon will be served at noon. Maggianetti, a member of the Youngstown police department and chief of intelligence, will have the afternoon kick-off speech. The afternoon session is slated to begin at 1:45.

A banquet will be held at 5:30. Principal speaker will be Wiggington, promotional director of the Cincinnati Bible Seminary. Lester Pifer, minister of the Martins Ferry church, will be toastmaster.

A "Roundup" time will be held after the banquet. Rodney Huron, a minister at the Labelle View church in Steubenville, will be speaker.

Organ and piano selections will be presented by Mrs. Theda Smith, organist at the host church, and Mrs. Ruth Estell, also of the host church.

Grant Laymon, minister at Brilliant, will direct a special song service. Special music also will be presented by a girls trio from the Cincinnati seminary.

Astronaut Walks Away From Hard Landing–In Kite

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—Astronaut Virgil I. Grissom has walked away from a hard landing—in a kite.

The incident occurred here Monday. The Air Force told of Grissom's misadventure Tuesday.

He flew a kite-like paraglider and landed it upright, although the craft's nose wheel crumpled when it hit the ground.

The Air Force major climbed out smiling and unhurt. He was the first astronaut to pilot the open-air vehicle, which was towed aloft by a biplane and released to glide downward in the manner expected to be used eventually for the two-man Gemini space capsule.

The Air Force termed its landing "a hard touchdown," rather than a crackup.

"Watered stock" is an addition to the shares issued by a stock company when there is no corresponding increase in the company's assets. This increases the total par value of all the stock, but reduces the actual value of each share.

Millage Reduction Slated For Wellsville School Tax

Wellsville school officials, who are seeking a new 5-mill levy at the Nov. 6 general election, today announced the millage reduction for the system that will go into effect under the new property valuation in January.

The present voted millage totaling 14.4 mills will be reduced to 12.4 mills under the new valuation. There is 4.6 mills inside the 10-mill limitation, or that which is not voted, which will remain the same.

For operation expenses, the millage will drop from 19 mills to 17 mills. The bond retirement millage will drop from 4.3 mills to 3.4 mills.

The grand total of all millage will drop from 23.3 mills to 20.4 mills.

Officials also pointed out that the 5 mills being sought will be reduced immediately to 4.3 mills. So, if the new levy passes, the total would be 24.7 mills, an increase in millage of actually only 1.4-mills as the total now is 23.3-mills.

The $193,200 total raised by levies includes $151,200 for operation and $42,000 for bonds.

A breakdown of various levies, showing the total voted and the new millage under the new valuation, is 6.6 down to 5.7; 2.8 down to 2.4; 3 down to 2.6, and 2 down to 1.7.

A major portion of the new levy will be used for teachers' salaries. Officials pointed out that the system needs to improve its salary schedule so as to attract needed teachers. The guidance program will be improved in the junior and senior high schools.

The new levy will be for 10 years. It will provide about $52,810 a year.

Under the levy, taxes on a typical property valued at $3,000 for tax purposes — a property that would sell for $9,000 to $10,000— will be increased $15 a year. On a $4,000 property — one that would sell for $12,000 to $14,000— the taxes will increase $20 a year and on a $2,000 property — one that sells from $6,000 to $7,000— the taxes will increase $10 a year.

Wellsvilles tax valuation per pupil is $5,422.41, the lowest in the entire surrounding area.

Northeastern Ohio Reports 2-Inch Snow

CLEVELAND (AP)—Some residents in parts of northeastern Ohio awoke today to find the ground covered with snow up to two inches thick.

The U. S. Weather Bureau at Cleveland Hopkins Airport said the heaviest accumulation of snow was in the Amherst area seven miles west of Lorain in Lorain County.

The snow, which fell earlier while temperatures hovered between 32 and 34 degrees, melted quickly as the mercury started to climb after daybreak, a forecaster said.

Less than two inches of snow were reported in North Royalton and Strongsville in southwestern Cuyhoga County.

Federal Men Admit Failure To Find Loot In Mail Theft

WEYMOUTH, Mass. (AP) — Federal officials conceded failure today after almost literally taking apart an $18,000 ranch home in an 11½-hour search for most of $1.5 million stolen Aug. 14 in the Plymouth, Mass., mail robbery.

Thomas R. Richards, 37, a World War II Navy veteran who bought the home in December 1958, was missing.

There was no warrant for Richards' arrest on any charge. Massachusetts State Police canceled a pickup order for him without explanation.

Instead of the expected million dollars, "more or less," as the search warrant described it, the all-day search yielded $330—thirty-three $10 bills hidden by a board fastened to the cellar ceiling against the plumbing. The bills could not be identified as stolen.

Other finds included a 12-gauge shotgun and a .45 caliber automatic pistol, stamped "U.S. property."

Workmen with pneumatic drills tore up a 20x10-foot concrete patio in the back yard. A power shovel cleared the loose concrete and dug six feet into the fill.

With crowbars, electric drills and saws, 30 federal men—postal inspectors and U.S. marshalls—ripped up floor boards, cut holes in walls, tore away shingles and sidings.

Federal officials declined to discuss responsibility for repairs to the house.

Richards, an electrician, was at work Tuesday morning on a construction job at Somerset, Mass., outside Fall River, when postal inspectors left a message telling him to come home. Richards left the job about 9:30 a.m. but did not return home.

Ferro Sales, Income Rise

Consolidated sales of $52,425,000 for the nine months ending Sept. 30, compared to $45,571,000 in the same 1961 period, were reported today by Robert Weaver Ferro board chairman at Cleveland.

Net earnings of $1,971,000 for the nine - month period in 1962 compare with $1,676,000 in the like period of 1961 for an increase of 17½ per cent. On a share basis wth 826,455 shares outstanding Sept. 30, this was equivalent to $2.38 per share in 1962 against $2.03 in 1961.

Weaver said that in the nine months of 1962, 15 cents more per share than in 1961 was required to cover currency devaluations in Argentina, Brazil and Canada. A major portion of this charge was required in the third quarter.

Sales for the three - month period ending Sept. 30 were $17,008,000 compared to sales of $15,753,000 in the third quarter of 1961. For the same three-month period, earnings were $527,000 compared to $623,000 in the 1961 third quarter.

Weaver added that high levels of building construction, consumer purchase of porcelain enamel appliances, and increased product sales to the plastic industry enabled almost all company divisions to contribute to the increased sales and earnings. Sales of international subsidiaries also increased approximately 18 per cent against an over-all domestic sales increase of slightly over 12 per cent.

Ferro operates facilities in East End.

Piano Duo Will Present Concert

Ferrante and Teicher, pianists of recording and concert fame, will present the opening concert for the Tri-State Civic Music Association Sunday afternoon at 3 at Westgate School.

Arthur Ferrante and Louis Teicher have been playing pianos together since they were 6 when they first met as students at the Juilliard School of Music in New York.

Ferrante was born in New York City, the son of a violinist. Teicher, born at Wilkes Barre, moved to New York at 5½, his family planning for him to enter Juilliard.

They studied with the same teachers and later were graduated as piano majors under Carl Friedberg. After a brief period of concerts, they returned to Juilliard as faculty members, teaching theory and composition. During the next few years, they combined teaching with a limited schedule of concerts and worked together creating new duo piano material. In 1947, they resigned from teaching to devote full time to concert work.

Since their first performance with the Toledo Symphony,they have played in 48 states and Canada. They combine classical music with their own arrangements of tunes of Gershwin, Rodgers, Kern, Porter and other popular composers, often with new sound effects for which they devised original gadgets to extend the tonal range of their pianos. Their recorded versions of "Exodus" and "Theme from 'The Apartment'" have sold over 2 million records.

Ferrante and Teicher travel by car, accompanied by their specially designed truck with driver and two concert grands. They have appeared on every major radio and television network, from Garry Moore and Steve Allen to the Ding Dong School. They also were with Percy Faith on "The Woolworth Hour" and appeared weekly on the Piano Playhouse. They played the music with sound effects for the motion picture, "Undersea Conquest," dealing with deep sea spear fishing.

Ernest Lowe, president, announced that memberships still are available up to the time of the concert by contacting Mrs. William Malkin or Miss Luella Thompson, campaign co-chairmen.

3,147 Voters At Midland

Midland has 3,147 voters, including 2,201 Democrats, 925 Republicans and 20 others, registered for the Nov. 6 election, according to figures released Tuesday by the Beaver County Registration Commission.

The county has a total of 96,615 registered voters, including 54,916 Democrats, 40,939 Republicans and 760 others in the county's 122 voting districts.

Democrats, countywide, are up 2,181 and Republicans down 342 from last November's election.

Midland Democrats are up 74 and Republicans down 143 from last year. The Republican figure is a gain of three over the 925 registered for the May 15 primary. Democrats showed a gain of 31 in May and a gain of 43 since May.

Aimed At Safer Society

DiSalle Offers 12-Point Prison-Correction Plan

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Michael V. DiSalle, Democratic candidate for re-election, came out today with a 12-point prison-correction program aimed, he said, at helping Ohio "achieve a safer society instead of continuing to specialize in failures."

The governor said the program contains essentially the same suggested improvements in facilities and personnel he sought in asking the 1961 legislature to budget an additional $1.2 million.

DiSalle listed 12 points he termed "the needs for a beginning in modernizing our correctional program":

1. A minimum of 70 new positions consisting of teachers, social workers, psychologists, vocational instructors and the necessary number of additional correctional workers to provide for implementation of an expanded educational and vocational training program.

2. Modernizing various institutional work shops.

3. Diversifying the program of the Ohio Penal Industries in order that more training could be directed toward those industries in need of certain scarce skills in Ohio.

4. A program providing for a readjustment process which will involve purposeful restitution to injured parties insofar as possible, as well as a systematic and constructive reacceptance of the offender into the community.

5. An increase in the number of guards and an increase in guard classification in order that there might be included some training in sociology and psychology.

6. A reduction in the number of cases requiring supervision by parole officers, in order that the probation and parole program can have the benefit of more frequent personal contract and more time to assist individuals who have been released in meeting the problems of employment and adjustment.

7. Realization that the prison can be a laboratory in human behavior and a place of intensified research where much can be learned about development of antisocial tendencies and methods of improving these attitudes.

8. An attempt to make use of the spare time of the inmate capable of assimilating knowledge by trying to give an understanding and insight into the reasons for his behavior and thinking. "This would be impossible," the governor said, "without an increase in psychiatric and psychological personnel."

9. Increase the number of chaplains.

10. In - training programs for parole officers so they may be developed into specialists in a position to follow up diagnoses made by professional people in medical, psychiatric, social and vocational programs.

11. Relocating the century-old, overcrowded Ohio Penitentiary from downtown Columbus and constructing new medium security institutions at London and Grafton.

12. Structural repairs at the Ohio State Reformatory, Mansfield, and Ohio Reformatory for Women, Marysville, especially rehabilitationg electrical wiring which now constitutes (DiSalle said) a serious fire hazard.

$2,500 Realized By Beaver Local Units In Dinners

An estimated $2,500 was netted by the Beaver Local Booster Club and Athletic Association from two political dinners served by the groups at Beaver Local High School last week, it was announced at a meeting of the booster group Tuesday night.

George Dunn reported on the dinners served for the Republican and Democratic county groups. Steve Barborak, president, expressed appreciation to those who assisted.

It was also announced the club's annual spring festival will be held June 3-8. Merchants desiring to have displays may notify Dunn.

Jack O'Rourke, coach, and eight members of the football team demonstrated offense plays. It was announced "Parents Night" will be observed at the Beaver Local - Toronto game Nov. 2.

Plans were discussed for the annual football banquet tentatively slated for the week of Nov. 26.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. George Green. Next meeting has been advanced to Nov. 6 instead of Nov. 13 because of other activities. George Wilkinson and Gale Williams will be program chairmen.

Becky Hall and Suzie Stacey, house and safety committee; Karen Cornell, devotions; Diane Davis, recreation; Jennifer Jacobs, assistant recreation leader, and Betty Bryan and Barbara Bryan, refreshments.

Next meeting is Nov. 12 with Mrs. Jacobs.

Airport Aide Speaks To Church Fellowship

Operations of the Greater Pittsburgh Airport and future improvements were discussed by Joseph Carlson, airport aide, at a meeting of the Men's Fellowship Tuesday night at the Westminster United Presbyterian Church of Chester.

Carlson, chief engineer of the department of aviation, displayed a large chart of the airport. He listed future improvements, including a 3-mile runway to be dedicated in November.

Prayers were given by Robert Smith, William T. Parsons and the Rev. William Claghorn, pastor. Lunch was served 20 by C. O. Comm, J. J. Berry and Ralph Wolfe. Clifton Huff, president, was in charge.,

Next meeting is Nov. 19.

Stanton Band Boosters Net $200 At Event

Stanton Local Band Boosters realized approximately $200 in serving a public dinner during Irondale's 22nd annual Homecoming Saturday, it was reported when the group met Monday night at the new high school in Hammondsville.

Mrs. Alice Pilutti, president, said proceeds will be placed in a fund for new band uniforms.

Plans were made to sponsor a Tag Day in the Stanton Local School District Nov. 3. Students will sell the tags. The committee includes Mrs. Lola Tolson, Mrs. Jean Gill, Mrs. Martha Boyd, Mrs. Alta Nicholson and Mrs. Gloria Gill.

A bazaar and food sale will be held in December in connection with a Christmas concert. Mrs. Jane Ann Tolson and Mrs. Charlotte Hogue are co-chairmen.

The boosters will provide refreshments for the band and football team following the game with Jefferson Union Nov. 9. The committee includes Mrs. Alberta Seevers, Mrs. Hogue, Mrs. Jerry Burton, Mrs. Evelyn Grafton, Mrs. Dolly Nelson and Mrs. Betty Sayre.

Pencils are being sold as a fund-raising project. Mrs. Libera Banfield and Mrs. Elaine Porter are co-chairmen.

John W. Huston, director, discussed the District 8 music festival to be held at the new high school March 23. Boosters will sell food.

Thirty attended. Next meeting is Nov. 26.

Former Ike Aide Gives Lecture At Wooster College

WOOSTER, Ohio (AP) — Sherman Adams has begun a three-week effort to help College of Wooster political science students make "a cooperative inquiry into the American political system."

Adams, assistant to former President Dwight D. Eisenhower for five years until he resigned four years ago while the affairs of his friend, Bernard Goldfine, Boston businessman, were under scrutiny, made his first lecture Tuesday.

A notice at the classroom door barred newsmen from listening to the first of five 75 - minute classes in which Adams will lecture.

In two classes he will divide the teaching assignment. Dr. Earl Latham, chairman of the political science department of Amherst College,will participate in the program next week, and Dr. Ralph Huitt of the University of Wisconsin will appear on the final day, Nov. 8.

Adams will give a public lecture on "The Eisenhower Years: An Interpretation" Thursday night and next Tuesday night he and Latham will conduct a dialogue on "Leadership in the Age of Crisis: The President."

Adams will address the 1,400 students of Wooster at a chapel session Thursday morning on "the determination and execution of political responsibility."

Safety Film Screened For Pughtown Grange

A movie on farm tractor safety was screened by Raymond Stevens at a meeting of the Fairview Grange Tuesday night at the Pughtown Grange Hall.

Mrs. Hilary Johnston, chaplain, gave a reading. Mrs. Marie Pugh and committee served lunch to 33.

Mrs. Robert Parkins, state lecturer, and Mrs. John Rice, state treasurer, along with some other members will attend a state Grange meeting Thursday at Jacksons Mill.

First and second degrees will be conferred on a class of candidates at the meeting Nov. 13.

Labor Dinner To Draw 200

Two hundred, including several guests, are expected at the annual banquet of the Trades and Labor Council Saturday night at 6:30 at St. Aloysius School Hall.

Principal speaker will be Miles C. Stanley of Charleston, president of the West Virginia Federation of Labor.

The guests will include Rep. Cleveland Bailey of the West Virginia 1st Congressional District, Rep. Wayne L. Hays of the 18th Ohio District, State Sen. Edmund A. Sargus of the 20th-22nd District, E. L. Wheatley, president, and members of the Executive Board of the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters, and James Mullen, staff representative of United Steelworkers at Midland.

Maj. William Hathorn of the Salvation Army will give the invocation and the benediction will be by Fr. Joseph Bennett, an assistant pastor at St. Aloysius Church.

Hal Green will furnish organ selections. The program committee is headed by Elmer Robinson, Trades Council president, and Richard Winters of Retail Clerks Local 133.

The committee on arrangements includes Helen Shively, Dorothee Prosser, Delores Rankin, Blanche Cook, Laura Krawiec, Joseph A. Winters, Floyd Jividen, Frank Duffy, Gloria Young and Clara Harley.

Person's Friendliness Seen Factor In Human Relations

The sincerity of a smile, the warmth in a handshake, and the readiness to lend an ear to the opinions of another help determine a man's ability to sell himself to others and find success, an expert in human relations told the Rotary Club Tuesday.

Talent, genius and education alone are not the most important factors in the makeup of a successful person, Joe Rose, regional director of the Elmer Wheeler Institute, declared at the club's noon luncheon meeting in the Travelers Hotel.

"How we greet people goes a long way too, how we shake hands often is an influencing factor," he added.

Rose demonstrated what he termed the "wrong" ways of shaking hands: the "pumphandle" shake which goes on and on; the "gluehand," who doesn't let go during the conversation; the "affectionate" who grabs the other person's elbow or shoulder for emphasis, and the "fishhand" shake of offering another a limp "paw."

"Words also play an important part in selling yourself to others," he continued. He said the six most important words or combination of words are:

"I admit I made a mistake, I am proud of you, What is your opinion?, If you please, thank you, and either I or you."

He also suggested that the successful man is "a good listener." "A good conversationalist is one who develops the ability to be a good listener," Rose said.

"What really makes people successful?" Rose asked. After interviewing thousands of successful men, the institute drew up this plan of approach, Rose said.

"Have a plan, write it down, know where to start, start now and don't wait another day, don't settle for less, relax, and be enthusiastic."

The institute, which has offices in Pittsburgh and Morgantown, working primarily in human relations with industry, will sponsor a clinic for the East Liverpool Area Chamber of Commerce in November.

The speaker was introduced by Francis L. O. Alder, program chairman.

Ralph A. Finley, vice president, presided. He announced the club's annual Rotary - Ann banquet is scheduled Nov. 28 at the Country Club with Sherlock Holmes Evans, lawyer, author, radio and stage actor, as speaker.

Cleveland Area People Urged To Stock Shelters

CLEVELAND (AP) — Greater Clevelanders are being urged by John J. Pokorny, civil defense coordinator for Cuyahoga County, to stock their shelter areas with food, water, sanitation equipment and other supplies.

"The civil defense message of the last 10 years still is valid today," he said Tuesday amid the uncertainty over the Cuban crisis.

Pokorny's office received more calls Tuesday for information on civil defense than on any day for several years.

More buildings are needed as fallout shelters, Pokorny said. He added that where owners sign up and buildings meet required standards, shelters will be stocked with supplies and equipment at government expense.

The greater Cleveland chapter of the American Red Cross said it immediately would begin teaching an eight-hour course in shelter management. Classes will be at Red Cross headquarters and at three area offices.

The Red Cross also is ready to teach basis first aid to 5,000 persons immediately, officials said.

Threat Of War Will Rule Stock Market Reactions

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—The war scare as it grows or ebbs in coming days will rule the stock and commodity markets.

Stock prices tumble if war seems imminent or, worse, if it starts. Fear of what war will do to peacetime industry sends prices of stocks of consumer product makers tumbling. What passes for prosperity in wartime is quite different from the real thing in peacetime.

But a scare, if it seems to be no more than that, can bolster stocks of companies that traders guess—they can't always be sure—will get increased military orders and profit from them, or can convert quickly from consumer to defense production.

Actual war disrupts stock markets everywhere. After the outbreak in 1914 of World War I the New York Stock Exchange was closed for four and a half months.

Commodity prices usually rise sharply at the first hint that world trade routes may be clipped, or that businessmen will be rushing to stock up on supplies before they become scarce, or that housewives will buy anything from food to appliances they fear may be rationed.

Sober second looks may change this. At the time of the Korean War, American housewives went on a scare buying binge, despite assurances that the war was too small to disrupt consumer production or to tax production facilities. Only after food began spoiling on the shelves did some of them learn that all they had done was send prices up needlessly.

Stock traders will be busy trying to guess how serious the quarantine of Cuba will be—what the reaction of the Soviet Union or of some of our allies shipping goods to Cuba, will be.

If the United States succeeds in calling Soviet Premier Khrushchev's hand, there well may still be an aftermath of a bigger build-up in U.S. defenses. There is almost sure to be a belief among American businessmen and consumers alike that trouble will be just that much more likely in other parts of the world where Khrushchev tries to regain face.

Paring industrial material stocks tends to stop even when a war scare turns into a shaky peace. Buying of consumer goods, already planned, may be delayed no longer by many families.

While Americans are trying to decide how serious this war scare is, or while they're waiting for the Soviet Union to react—in deeds, that is, not words—many are expected to follow the usual pattern. The timid will sell stocks, preferring cash in hand. Others will stay on the sidelines and put off any buying plans. Some will look for stocks they think will profit from a defense buildup.

Few sober observers will argue there's anything healthy about the fever-glow of wartime activity or of massive defense buildups.

Midland Center Halloween Dance Will Be Saturday

The Midland Hi-Spot Youth Center will hold its seventh annual Jack O'Lantern Ball Saturday from 8:30 to 11:30 p. m. and the special program will include entertainment from the Anne Rochelle and Ricky Sanford dance studios.

The performers from the studios will not compete for prizes being offered to other students who register and perform during a talent contest.

There will also be prizes for the best costumes. Two groups from Anne Rochelle studio will perform and one from the Sanford studio. Sanford will also do a jazz number. Both studios will give an exhibition of ballroom dancing.

The Hi-Spot will also make its annual UNICEF donation.

Mrs. William Spisak, director, said there will be new records for dancing and the menu will include doughnuts and pizza.

The student committee will begin Thursday decorating the Hi-Spot quarters on the third floor of the Borough Building.

A group from the Hi-Spot will appear Saturday, Dec. 29, on the "Nine-Teen Time" program on Steubenville television station WSTV, Channel 9.

County Planning Group Approved

Columbiana County commissioners have approved a study committee on regional planning for the county. Floyd Lower, county extension agent in agriculture, was appointed temporary chairman.

Appointed were Ted Koenig, 1843 Michigan Ave., Don Eckert, 338 Thompson Ave., Charles Coleman, R. D. 3, Dean Wilhelm, R. D. 2, and Ralph Lisk, 629 Garner Ave., East Liverpool.

Allan Dalrymple, R. D. 1, Charles Stone, Russell Heights, and Herbert Frischkorn, R. D. 1, Wellsville.

Gail Herron, Norman Weingart, Howard Firestone, James Gibbs, Willis Zimmerman, R. D. 3, and Edward Lesch, Salem.

George Haoglin and Harold Brittain of East Palestine, Robert Cole and Wilbur Hays of Salineville, Allen Chamberlain and Ben Weingart of Leetonia, Donald Rupert of New Waterford, Earl Kitzmiller of Homeworth, Olan Sanor of East Rochester, Lowell Smith of Minerva R. D. 2 and Frank Murray and Lower, Lisbon.

CPA Group Sets Family Dinner

Plans for a family dinner were discussed at the meeting of the Parental Group of the Columbiana County Affiliate of the Cerebral Palsy Association Monday night in the clinic rooms of the Mary Patterson Memorial.

The event will be held Nov. 26 in the rooms with Mrs. Donald Mahon, general chairman.

Mrs. Willam White, president, presided. The group is selling doll clothes, aprons and Christmas candy.

Instead of the Halloween party, members voted to give a treat to the children of the nursery school.

Next meeting is pending.

'Vacation' Will Be Friday

County Schools To Close For Teachers Convention

Schools throughout Columbiana County will be closed Friday while 988 administrators and teachers attend the fourth annual convention of the East Central Teachers Association in Canton's Memorial Auditorium.

The six-county association is composed of officials and instructors from Carroll, Columbiana, Holmes, Stark, Tuscarawas and Wayne counties.

Highlighting the one-day affair will be an address by Martin Agronsky, NBC-TV and radio newscaster who has won several major awards for his broadcasts, a business meeting at which new officers will be chosen and results of a vote on constitutional amendments will be announced, and departmental luncheons.

The program will begin at 9:15 a. m. with selections by the Carrollton High School band.

E. R. Malone, superintendent of North Canton Schools and ECOTA president, will preside at the general meeting at 10:15 a. m. at which Agronsky will speak. The other association officers are W. E. Laws, Tuscarawas County superintendent, vice president; Mrs. Mary Leatherberry of Hanoverton, a teacher at United Local, secretary, and W. F. Quinn, principal of Canton Harter School, executive secretary.

Lee Kirkland, principal of Beaver Local High School, is the county's retiring representative of the executive committee. Kirkland will be succeeded by W. G. Gloss, Columbiana High School principal, who has been named for a two-year term on the executive committee.

Twenty-three departmental luncheons and programs will be held at 12:30 p. m.

The Classroom Teachers Department will meet at 2:30 p. m. in Timken Vocational High School auditorium with Mrs. Sara Knight of Salem, president, presiding.

Mrs. Knight has been nominated for re-election and will be opposed by Mrs. Helen Carrico of Dover.

The Representative Assembly at which business will be transacted also will meet at 2:30 in the Onesta Hotel ballroom. Malone will preside.

If the proposed changes in the constitution are approved, the ECOTA will select a president-elect each year to serve the following year rather than choosing a vice president.

The amendment also provides the officers will be elected on the Friday preceding the annual meeting with the results being announced prior to the general meeting.

The election committee also will announce the results of the election of association officers. The nominees for president are Laws and Thomas Jednaszewski, principal of Augusta High School.

Candidates for president - elect to serve in the 1963-64 term are Supt. Paul E. Smith of Salem, Dr. R. G. Drage, Stark County superintendent; Robert Gennett, Canton teacher, and Mrs. Mae Brady Heyman, Massillon teacher.

Mrs. Marjorie Martin of West Holmes District and Miss Joyce Fast, a teacher at Orrville High School, are candidates for secretary.

Nominated at the ECOTA member of the Ohio Education Association executive committees are Mrs. Omega Cain of Perry Local; Robert Dawling of Alliance, David Knight of Orrville, and Harold Patterson of East Holmes Local.

Lausche Changed Trade Bill Vote, Briley Declares

CLEVELAND (AP)—John Marshall Briley says U.S. Sen. Frank J. Lausche voted for the Trade Expansion Act Sept. 19 but now says he voted against it.

Briley, Republican candidate for Senate, said on a television tape Tuesday night the Congressional Record shows Lausche voted for the bill, but that Lausche now says, "I could not bring myself to vote for the Trade Expansion Act.

"Maybe he couldn't bring himself to vote for it, but somebody brought him to vote for it. I wish he would tell the truth."

Lausche was quoted in newspaper reports Monday as saying on television that he "voted against the trade expansion bill because I opposed giving one man the power of life or death over any industry."

Contacted at Dayton, where he has been campaigning, Lausche said he would make no comment on Briley's accusation.

Ex-Singer Dies

NORWALK, Conn. (AP) — Marion Telva, who sang leading mezzo-soprano roles at the Metropolitan Opera from 1920 to 1933, died Tuesday after a brief illness. She was the widow of Elmer Ray Jones, onetime president of the Wells-Fargo Co., who died in 1961.

Probe Fatal Stabbing

CINCINNATI (AP) — Hamilton County police were investigating the fatal stabbing of Otto Barth, of Madeira, found dead Tuesday at his meat market.

Area Visit Had Been Planned By Johnson

Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson has notified Democratic leaders in Jefferson and Hancock Counties that he has canceled scheduled visits Thursday and Friday at the request of President Kennedy.

The vice president was slated to speak at the Community Arena in Steubenville Thursday night and attend a breakfast in the Chester American Legion home Friday morning.

Richard L. Wright, chairman of the Democratic executive committee in Hancock County, said those who had purchased tickets for the breakfast Friday morning in Chester, at which Johnson was to speak, may refund them at the Democratic headquarters in Chester. The rally has been canceled, he added, and no other speaker will be contacted.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: To get the last bit of shortening out of the can, fill it with boiling water then let it cool. The shortening will rise to the top and harden for easy removal. If you will coat the covers of cook books with clear shellac, drips and spills will wash off easily!

I remove the burned taste from scorched milk by placing the pan in cold water and adding a pinch of salt to the milk.

I tenderize chicken by rubbing the inside and outside with lemon juice before cooking.

DIANE PAYNE

-:-

DEAR HELOISE: I like the new detergent tablets for my automatic washer, but first I always let them dissolve in an old peanut butter glass jar in some hot water before dumping this in my washing machine.

This only takes about five minutes. This way I find that I can use tepid water or even cold water to do the washing. This saves buying "cold water" soap.

WIDOWER

DEAR HELOISE: I wash my own blankets in my washing machine. Naturally never wash wool blankets in hot water.

This is the way I dry and tumble my blankets in our dryer: I take five dry towels, place the towels in my dryer and place the dryer on high heat for ten minutes. When the bath towels have become completely warm, cut your dryer back to low heat.

Put the blanket in the machine and tumble it until it becomes completely dry. The heat from the warm bath towels absorbs the moisture immediately and acts as a buffer and prevents wear on your blankets when drying.

Roman Catholic Leaders Expect Spiritual Renewal

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
Associated Press Religion Writer

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Roman Catholic leaders are working to develop means of putting more inner vitality into the outer forms of church life.

This is a basic emphasis as the Roman Catholic Ecumenical Council weighs extensive revisions in ritual and modes of worship.

It also signals a central theme for the council in the months ahead. "We expect a spiritual renewal," the council said in its initial message.

Such expressions have given a sort of evangelical tenor to this worldwide gathering of about 2,400 prelates.

The accent is on internal rejuvenation, rather than external structure. The idea runs through many of the proposals facing the council.

It is inherent in plans for harnessing the energies of laymen more fully in the church's work.

It is linked with moves to give more latitude to bishops in shaping policies in their own areas to meet specific human needs.

It is associated with efforts to clear the way toward greater Christian unity.

It is an underlying factor in proposals for a broader interpretation of the Church as a spiritual organism, not bound entirely to institutional lines.

It is a main objective of the remodeling of liturgical methods and aids to worship now under discussion.

Council specialists said the proposed technical changes seek to draw people more actively, personally and intimately into fuller participation in the spiritual exercises.

Some of the present practices and symbolic forms are "not understood by modern man," said the Rev. Edward Heston, of South Bend, Ind., a council consultant on liturgy.

Adjustments, he said, would simplify some of the customs, in order to draw people into closer inward involvement.

In regard to the over-all work of the council, Bishop Charles H. Helmsing of Kansas City-St. Joseph, Mo., noted: "Since the 16th century, the church has been careful to stress the church as a visible society with a hierarchy composed of the successors of Peter and the apostles.

"This, of course, was a reaction to the contention that the Church as Christ established it is entirely invisible and known to God alone.

"Important as I think the traditional image of the Church is, even more important, I believe, is an appreciation of her inner life."

88 Due Parole

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — This week's list of Pardon and Parole Commission parole approvals includes 56 inmates of London Correctional Institution and 32 at Lebanon Correctional Institution.

A PERRIWIG. Don Marshall, originator of the veil hat, adds something new to his fall collection. Platinum blond hair is trimmed with a black velvet band and eye-length veil. Milady's own hair is pulled straight back and worked into a French roll, and the Perriwig is worn just as a hat, making her look elegant and perfectly groomed. Give Ohio Firm Defense Pact, McNamara Told COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — U.S. Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara has been sent "an urgent plea" that the Baldwin-Lima-Hamilton Co. be awarded a multi-million-dollar defense contract.

The director of the Ohio Department of Industrial and Economic Development, Koder M. Collison, said he sent McNamara a telegram Tuesday urging that the contract for military track vehicles go to B-L-H's Lima works.

Collison's wire read:

"In view of the grave international situation it is imperative that military contracts for equipment be met with all dispatch. Contract RFP 62-46 for tanks and reconnaissance vehicles M-107; M-110; T120E, can be fulfilled most promptly at the Baldwin - Lima-Hamilton plant, Lima, Ohio.

"This producer of track vehicles has the know-how, available building space and equipment for immediate production. Sub - contractors needed have been contacted and stand ready to supply B-L-H with any sub needs.

"Lima is so well located geographically, which together with excellent rail and highway transportation facilities, makes it possible to make delivery in the shortest possible time to the areas required.

"Award of this contract to the Baldwin - Lima - Hamilton Company will not only add to the military strength of our great nation but will greatly assist the economy of Ohio and the Great Lakes region."

Brown Raps DiSalle On 'Mud-Slinging'

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP) — The Republican candidate for lieutenant - governor, State Sen. John W. Brown, has predicted that what he calls Gov. Michael V. DiSalle's "attempt to drag the Republicans down to gutter level" will fail.

In a talk here Tuesday, Brown assailed what he called Democratic mud-slinging and said Republicans don't expect to resort to such tactics.

Earnings Dip For Crucible

Earnings of the Crucible Steel Co. fell to $228,000 on sharply lower sales in the quarter ending Sept. 30, from the $1,908,000 of the previous three months, the company has announced.

Sales were $50,011,000, down from $62,588,000 in the second period.

Earnings for the first nine months were $4,593,000, compared to a $963,000 loss reported by the company for the same period last year.

The current sales decline was blamed on seasonal causes and customer inventory reduction. The company said it expects the final quarter to be better than the third quarter.

The third quarterly report ending Sept. 30, with 1961 figures first and 1962 figures second, are: sales — $48,348,000 and $50,011,000; depreciation — $2,212,000 and $2,428,000; federal income tax — $313,000 and $249,000; net income —$532,000 and $228,000, and dividend per common share — 10 cents and 3 cents.

For the nine - month period ending Sept. 30, with 1961 figures first and 1962 figures second: sales — $137,056,000 and $180,559,000; depreciation — $6,191,000 and $7,158,000; federal income tax—credit of $1,804,000 and not a credit of $5,077,000; net income—loss of $963,000 and no loss of $4,593,000, and per common share—35 cents and $1.10.

Backs Airport Plan

LEBANON, Ohio (AP)—Warren County has joined three other Southwest Ohio counties in supporting the proposal for a regional airport. Warren County commissioners designated $2,450 to help pay for a feasibility study of the proposal. Five of the 11 counties in the area have opposed the plan.

Seeks Power Boost

WASHINGTON (AP) — Radio station WLW in Cincinnati has applied to the Communications Commission for authority to increase its power 15-fold. Its present 50-kilowatt output would be boosted to 750 kilowatts.

Chopped walnuts and raisins are good added to gingerbread that is to be served for dessert with applesauce or lemon sauce.

A-Test Tonight, Saturday May Wind Up Series

HONOLULU (AP) — Tonight's scheduled high-altitude nuclear blast above Johnston Island and another test planned for Saturday may bring to a close the trouble-plagued Pacific nuclear series.

Both tests originally were scheduled 24 hours earlier but were pushed back because of technical difficulties. There was no further explanation.

Time schedule for the shots is a five-hour period beginning at 2:30 a.m. EST.

Join Task Force 8 officials declined comment on whether Saturday's explosion will be the last. However, a spokesman said a week ago only three tests were authorized in the series that resumed this month.

The United States exploded the first of the shots last Friday. That blast was the size of the atom bomb that leveled Hiroshima in 1945.

Tonight's test will be in the submegaton range, equivalent in power to between 20,000 and one million tons of TNT.

Vanguard Expected Today For State Church Sessions

The vanguard of an expected attendance of 500 were to begin arriving at Chester this afternoon for the 93rd annual convention of the West Virginia Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ), which will open Thursday at 8 p. m. with the annual president's address.

The First Christian Church of Chester is host with Earliss D. Gleaton pastor.

The convention president is Dr. Norman G. Crawford, minister of the First church of Princeton, W. Va. His subject will be the convention theme, "Discipleship Unlimited."

The convention will continue through Sunday noon.

Mrs. J. Warren Hastings of Indianapolis, national director of field services of unified promotion, will speak on "The Price of Discipleship — World Outreach" at 2:15 p. m. Friday. She also will speak on "A Letter—Sent!" at 2 p. m. Saturday.

The Rev. Allin Sharp, missionary in Argentina, will speak on "The Effect of Politics on Argentine Missions" at 2:50 p. m. Friday. His address, "The Risen Christ In Changing South America," will be at 2:15 p. m. Saturday.

Dr. Ronald Osborne, church historian, author and dean of the Christian Theological Seminary at Indianapolis, will speak on "The Disciples' Lord" at 7:30 p. m. Friday.

Dr. Virgil Sly of Indianapolis, executive secretary of the Division of World Missions of the United Christian Missionary Society, will speak on "Cry, Oh Mission of God" at 11:30 a. m. Saturday.

Dr. Ralph A. Valentine of Huntington, general secretary - director of the Christian Churches of West Virginia, will speak on "Vision Unlimited" at the 7:30 p. m. meeting Saturday.

CD Unit Finishes First Aid Course

The St. Clair Township Civil Defense unit Tuesday night completed a series of classes in standard first aid with 17 attending at he Glenmoor fire station.

Frank B. Shone was instructor He demonstrated blanket lifts hand-carries and types of bandages at the concluding meeting and Kenneth Schneidmiller demonstrated "mask - to - mouth" breathing, a type of artificial respiration.

Refreshments were served by he mass feeding team.

Classes in advanced first aid will begin Nov. 7, with the place to be announced. Those who have standard first aid cards not expired may be enrolled. Others may attend to see the demonstration.

Winners Announced For Poster Contest

Winners were announced Tuesday in the poster contest held in the first through sixth grades of Wellsville schools in conjunction with Fire Prevention Week.

The contest was conducted by Fireman Frank Fusco in co-operation with Dominick Aimino, public school art supervisor. The Junior Chamber of Commerce provided trophies for the winner and runnerup in each division. The winners and runnersup in each grade follow:

Joe Miller of Garfield and Danny Wyand of McKinley, first grade; Julie Corbisello of Fairview and Becky Hamilton of MacDonald, second; Charles Lews of MacDonald and Cathy Lanam of Fairview, third; James Cuffaro of Immaculate Conception Parochial, and John Lloyd of Garfield, fourth; Portia Pulliam of MacDonald, and Bonita Roach of Immaculate Conception, fifth, and Brad Call of MacDonald and Eric Bush of MacDonald, sixth.

100 Drivers Expected To View Penalty Film

EAST PALESTINE — Over 100 motorists cited for recent violations are expected to attend a screening of a traffic safety film, "Mechanized Death," Thursday night at 7:30 at the Madden Building at Market and Rebecca Sts.

County Judge Herbert Arfman scheduled the second screening for drivers penalized in his court but given reductions in fines if they view the film. Some drivers are also expected from County Judge Luther Donbar's court at Salem.

Rifle Club To Hold First Shoot Tonight

Wellsville's newly - organized Junior Rifle Club will hold its first "shoot" tonight at 7 at the range on the third floor of City Hall.

The club was formed under the auspices of the Wellsville Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Dan MacLean, chairman, said 16 youths have paid their dues, but pointed out the deadline has been extended to Friday for any who desire to pay and become charter members.

Dues may be paid tonight at the range, he said. The club will be affiliated with the National Rifle Association.

The club is open to boys and girls from 12 to 18. Each will use 22-caliber rifles.

Barron Issues 'Clarification' On Liquor Laws

CHARLESTON (AP) — Gov. Barron issued a "clarification statement" yesterday on what he said about enforcing West Virginia liquor laws should the liquor by the drink amendment fail at the polls Nov. 6.

In answering a news conference question last Thursday on whether the amendment's defeat might call for closing of private clubs, Barron explained he wouldn't consider such a development an absolute mandate for enforcement action but that it would set a precedent "and there would be a lot of argument for closing down the clubs."

In stating his position yesterday, the governor said under the constitution he has the duty to uphold the laws enacted by the Legislature.

"Unfortunately," he added, "many people have a tendency to take every statement made concerning the controversial 'whisky by the drink' amendment and twist it to their own purposes."

"May I . . . again say . . . that I have made up my mind as to how I shall cast my vote on this amendment, but I will not, under any circumstances, be embroiled in this issue . . ."

The governor also was quoted at the news conference as saying he would "not necessarily" consider defeat of the proposed amendment a mandate to move against private clubs for their sale of drinks across the bar.

Driver Hurt As Truck Skids On Wet Route 7

A Michigan trucker received minor injuries Tuesday night when his semi-trailer rig skidded on wet pavement of Route 7 about five miles south of Rogers and hit an embankment.

Gerald Deshler, 42, of Sand Creek Mich. was headed north, according to the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon, when the rig skidded and struck the embankment on the left side of the road about 8:40 p. m.

He suffered a bruised knee, and the tractor received extensive damage, officers said. Deshler was charged with driving left of center.

No one was reported injured in two county accidents officers were investigating this morning — one at the intersection of Routes 7 and 14 and another on Stewart Rd. near Salem.

Line Island IOOF Sets Event With Rebekahs

Plans for a joint banquet Nov. 1 at 6 p. m. for members of Maid of Indian Rocks Rebekah Lodge 325 and Line Island Odd Fellows Lodge 742 were completed at a meeting of the IOOF group Tuesday night.

Mrs. Ethel Wynkoop and George Visnick will be co-chairmen.

Plans also are being completed for the formation of a dartball league.

George Vlasich reported on repairs to the building interior. It was announced Shirl Balser of Industry, a member, will leave Friday for the armed forces.

Twelve attended with Rudy Zetz, noble grand, presiding. Next meeting is Tuesday night at 7:30.

Palestine Names New School For Former Teacher

EAST PALESTINE — The new 10-room elementary school on W. Grant St. has been designated as the Elma Sutherin Elementary School, the East Palestine Board of Education announced today.

The school has been named in memory of Mrs. Elma Smith Sutherin, longtime teacher and junior high school principal, who retired in 1946 and died two years later, having been in education for 52 years.

A native of the city, she was graduated from Mount Union College in 1890, and first taught in the Pleasant Valley School in Columbana County.

She also taught a Sunday School class at the Methodist Church for over 35 years, a class which still bears her name. She was married to James Sutherin who died. A son, Francis Sutherin, now resides at Bedford.

The new school, which has been completed, is not being utilized for lack of equipment. A new 5-mill levy and a renewal of a 3-mill levy on the Nov. 6 ballot would enable use of the school, members said.

Training sessions for volunteers who will conduct a house-to-house promotion canvass for the two levies next week will begin Thursday.

The sessions will be held in the basement of the City Hall tomorrow at 10 a. m. and 2, 4 and 6 p. m. and Friday at 1, 5 and 8 p. m. Miss Alice Herriott, chairman of the project said.

19 Attend First Aid Course At Wellsville

Nineteen attended another session in a first aid class held by the Wellsville Red Cross at the Carnegie Library Tuesday night for members of the women's auxiliary of the Highlandtown volunteer fire department.

Mrs. Jane Powell and Paul Knox, instructors, conducted a demonstration of two new phases in first aid. One is a clear plastic bandage used to halt bleeding of wounds and to serve as a temporary splint in fractures. It is inflatable.

They also demonstrated the use of a mask now used in "mouth-to-mouth" artificial respiration. It is known as "mouth-to-mask."

Another sesson will be held Tuesday night at 7.

Hancock Pupils To Exhibit Arts In State Meeting

Eighteen students from Hancock County schools will exhibit creative arts in Charleston in conjunction with the meeting of the West Virginia Education Association Thursday and Friday.

They include Jim Foltz, eighth grade at Wells High School, Newell, poetry, "My Birthright, West Virginia," and Jack Burnquist, seventh grade, Chester Elementary, short story, "The Mystery of the Old Gray House."

The exhibit is being sponsored to heighten interest in the creative arts as a part of the school curriculum in the state. Featured work will include arts, crafts, writing, music and dance.

A committee of teachers selected the works to represent Hancock County. It was composed of J. R. Haworth, Steve Psaroudis, Mrs. Michael Swarts, Mrs. Dorothy Murray and Mrs. Forrestine Wiegmann for the art work, and Mrs. Naomi Robison, Mrs. Alberta Abrams, Mrs. Ruth Morgan, Miss Marlene Kokochak Mrs. Jan Dietz and Mrs. Elizabeth Young for creative writing.

Jury Awards $1,615 In Suit Over Contract

LISBON — A Common Pleas Court jury Tuesday afternoon returned a verdict for R. E. Iden of the R. E. Iden Construction Co. for $1,615, the amount he claimed was due on a verbal contract for improvement of a dwelling.

The defendants, Harry and Darlene Summerville of Minerva R. D. 2, alleged that the plaintiff was to use only two men at $4.50 per hour, but instead hired another, making the hourly rate $6.75.

The jury deliberated over two hours. The trial began Monday with Judge Raymond S. Buzzard presiding.

600 Attend 2nd Of Travelogues

About 600 attended the second in the World Travel and Adventure Series sponsored by the Quota Club Tuesday night at Westgate School.

Ted Bumiller gave the narration for his travelogue, "Scandinavia In the Four Seasons."

He was introduced by Dr. Myer Alpern, who spoke on the Hearing and Speech Clinic, which the club operates at Westgate School. Proceeds go to this clinic.

Mrs. Nellie McLain, club president, and Mrs. Rebecca Turk were at the door and Mrs. Laura Reinacher and Mrs. Lucille Singer at the candy concession.

Mrs. Marie Hays, general chairman, handled the ticket booth, assisted by Miss Betsy Bell.

Next Tuesday, Bob Davis will screen his film, "Sicily, Island of the Sun."

Rogers PTA To Hold School Fair Friday

ROGERS — Plans have been completed for a school fair to be held Friday from 6:30 to 10 p. m. under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher Association.

The fair will include a masquerade contest, movies, games, country store, fish pond, cake walk and refreshments. Vegetables and canned goods will be displayed.

City Builds Ash Stockpile, Ready For Winter Snows

The city's street department is preparing for winter snowfalls, with one eye on the calendar and another on its stockpile of ashes and salt — the principal weapon in its annual battle to keep traffic moving.

Although a backlog of cinders has been accumulated over the last six weeks, the supply now "is about as low as we've ever had to start a winter," Supt. W. M. Laughlin said. However, he said the department hopes to build its stockpiles higher before the first snow flies.

The accumulated ashes are kept at two spots — indoor storage in a big brick building which the city leases in East End and an outdoor site along the River Rd. The leased building is adjacent to the former Valley Motor Transit Co. bus barn on Pennsylvania Ave. It also is used for housing equipment.

The city does not generally build up big stockpiles of salt, as it can be obtained on short notice from local and area suppliers. In the past, the city has made it a practice to keep at least nine tons on hand at the East End building.

When snow begins to fall, each piece of street department equipment starts its rounds over a fixed route, taking care first of major thoroughfares and the worst trouble spots.

In another annual task, the department has started removal of fallen leaves from streets. Both the mechanical sweeper and broom-and-shovel crews are busy on the job.

In the late fall of 1961, the job was done manually, as the city's old street sweeping machine was broken down. A new machine acquired a few months ago is speeding the leaf removal task this year.

The fallen leaves present two major hazards. They tend to block sewer openings if not removed. And, when wet down by rain, they make the surface of any street treacherous.

Briley Urged Solid Support For Kennedy

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — John Marshall Briley, Republican candidate for the U.S. Senate, says everyone should "unite behind the President in the critical days ahead."

However, Briley, who has been severely critical of President Kennedy's foreign policy said he thought the President's action on Cuba was long overdue.

He told an interviewer Tuesday Republican congressmen and candidates "have for weeks been criticizing the delay in facing up to the Cuban situation. They have criticized the policy of watchful waiting and have been advocating precisely what the President has now done."

Crews Preparing To Keep Roads Clear Of Snow

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Road crews already are preparing for the annual multi-million dollar job of keeping the state's highways clear of snow and ice.

Maintenance engineer J. W. Reppel of the State Highway Department said dry runs have begun to make sure snow-removal equipment is ready. The department has about 1,600 radio-equipped vehicles for the task, Reppel added.

The State Highway Department's five-month battle against ice and snow cost $5,873,283 in 1961-62. Costs vary with the severity of the winter but generally are between $5 million and $7 million.

This season, state road crews face the job of clearing much of the 18,442-mile state highway system and 443 miles of Interstate routes in Ohio. This does not include the 207 miles of the Ohio Turnpike, for which the Turnpike Commission is responsible.

Of the total mileage, 1,047 is within the limits of communities of less than 5,000 population, and 1,629 miles is within communities of more than 5,000.

Writer Dies At 74

STONINGTON, Conn. (AP) — Dana Burnet, 74, prolific writer for magazines, Broadway and movies, died Monday. Burnet wrote hundreds of short stories for magazines and four Broadway plays and was the author of seven books. He was born in Cincinnati, Ohio.

3 Hot Races In California To Test Political Leanings

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Three bitter races for Congress in one of the nation's largest metropolitan centers promise an intriguing test of current political leanings.

Seldom are voters' choices so sharp as in California's newly revamped 25th, 27th, and 29th congressional districts.

Republican or Democrat? Outspoken conservative or outspoken liberal? More government in Washington or less?

Those issues, clearly defined by the six candidates will provide tests of both the New Frontier and of the John Birch Society, controversial ultraconservative organization.

The contests match three stoutly conservative Republicans—members and defenders of the Birch Society and sharply critical of the Kennedy administration—against Democrats who support the New Frontier and attack what they call Birchism.

At stake are two Republican seats in the U.S. House of Representatives. The third seat is in a new district.

Both sides predict victory. The overwhelmingly Democratic California Legislature drew the districts with Democratic voter registration margins of 60 per cent and up.

Taking the races one by one:

25th District— Once represented in Congress by Richard M. Nixon, the district was re-drawn recently with 153,000 registered voters—98,000 Democrats, 55,000 Republicans. It is in the San Gabriel Valley east of Los Angeles. Republican incumbent John H. Rousselot of Baldwin Park seeks a second term. His opponent is two-term Democratic Assemblyman Ronald Brooks Cameron of Whittier.

Rousselot, 34, says the overriding issue is "survival of our constitutional republic and our capitalistic-free enterprise system as we have known it."

Cameron, 35, an accountant, says Rousselot's Birch membership is a major issue, adds: "The man's not competent to be a congressman."

27th District—A smaller district north of downtown Los Angeles in the San Fernando and Antelope valleys that Republican incumbent Edgar W. Hiestand of Burbank has represented for five terms. The 173,000 registered voters include 104,000 Democrats, 65,000 Republicans, 4,000 unstated. Opposing Hiestand is Democratic Los Angeles city councilman Everett G. Burkhalter of North Hollywood.

Hiestand, 73, says conservatives are under vicious attack by the leftists and the so-called liberal extremists. Unless the people show they want the present unbelievably harmful and dangerous policies abandoned, those policies will be continued and the consequences are certain to be disastrous."

Burkhalter, 65, goes down the line with the Democratic party position and is pledged to back medical care for the aged. He contends Hiestand "wraps himself in the flag."

29th District—A new, spread-out district, largely in the San Gabriel Valley, with about 90,000 Democrats and 50,000 Republicans. Republican H. L. Richardson, a Temple City advertising consultant, opposes Democratic Assemblyman George E. Brown of Monterey Park.

Richardson, 34, campaigns as a conservative, calls for a firmer stand against the Communists and elimination of what he calls "piecemeal surrender."

Brown, 41, was a onetime conscientious objector who wound up as a second lieutenant in the Army in World War II. He pledges to support the Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy (SANE), whose endorsement he has.

Your Family Deserves the Best

Visit our Meat Department this week-end . . . and take a good look at the beef you buy:
Here are several points to look for when buying meat:
Better quality beef is cherry red in color and firm to the touch. The lean is velvety and fine grained with little veins of cream-white fat running through it. (Your market man calls this marbling . . . the more marbling in a cut of beef, the more flavor there is for you to enjoy!)
Our beef has all these qualities! That's because our buyers select "choice" beef for you, graded by the government!

Faces West Virginia Voters

Executive And Budget Amendment Is Complex

By HERB LITTLE
(Second of Four Parts)

CHARLESTON (AP) — The Executive and Budget Amendment is the most complex of the five constitutional amendments to be voted on in the Nov. 6 West Virginia election. Next to the Alcoholic Liquor Control Amendment, it has proved the most controversial.

Among the five, only the Executive and Budget Amendment originated in the Commission on Constitutional Revision. This is the group, headed by ex - Gov. Homer A. Holt, which the 1957 Legislature created to overhaul the state's Constitution, now 90 years old.

The amendment carries the endorsement of the commission, Gov. Barron, the League of Women Voters and the West Virginia State Bar, to name some of the more important supporters. The current issue of the State Bar News said:

"This amendment is the most forward step taken in many years toward modernizing our almost century-old Constitution. It should receive the support of all citizens interested in improving state government."

Lined up in opposition are the influential West Virginia Education Association, its affiliate, the West Virginia Classroom Teachers Association, and some of Gov. Barron's fellow members of the Board of Public Works, which would be shorn of its budget - making duties.

The board of directors of the classroom teachers adopted a resolution objecting to the amendment on the ground that "specific deletions and omissions relating to public schools would destroy certain financial safeguards which the present Constitution provides and which guarantee that the state assume its responsibility for public schools."

The Executive and Budget Amendment will appear in the No. 2 position on the Nov. 6 ballot, immediately beneath the Alcoholic Liquor Control Amendment. If ratified by the voters, the amendment will make these changes:

— Permit the governor, who may not now succeed himself, to serve two successive terms.

— Require the Legislature to consolidate some 90 departments, boards and commissions into "not more than 20 principal departments," grouped according to function. The governor would appoint the department heads, subject to Senate confirmation, and they would "serve at the pleasure of the governor."

— Adopt an "executive budget" type of fiscal operation, which most states now have. This means the governor would have sole responsibility for drafting the proposed state budget for submission to the Legislature every January. This is now the job of the Board of Public Works, on which the governor is only one of seven members.

Two terms for the governor and the requirement for consolidation of the governmental patchwork have not stirred up much opposition. Nearly all the arguments have been about the amendment's budget provisions.

High Court Sets Date On Outdoor Ad Firm's Reply

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A Fremont outdoor advertising firm has until Nov. 10 to reply to court action demanding dissolution of the corporation.

Complying with an Ohio Supreme Court order, Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy listed 32 allegedly illegal billboards along Ohio interstate highways in comjunction with his action to dissolve Consolite Corp.

The court had sought the list to make more definite the attorney general's suit to speed removal of highway signs violating the state anti-billboard law.

McElroy said the 32 signs were in five counties, with a great number in Wood County. He said nine other signs in five counties had been removed on the order of the highway director.

The dissolution suit was brought directly in the Supreme Court on a quo-warranto action requiring the company to show by what right it operates in Ohio.

Other suits attacking the anti-billboard law are pending in trial courts in eight counties. Allen County Common Pleas Court has held the law unconstitutional. An appeal in that case is pending.

Farewell Reception Planned For Lisbon Pastor And Wife

The Rev. and Mrs. William Spangler of the First Christian Church of Lisbon will be honored at a farewell reception Sunday evening at 7:30 at the church. The deaconesses will be the hostesses.

All members of the church and friends are invited.

Rev. Spangler has accepted a call to the First Christian Church of Beaver Falls and will assume his new pastorate Nov. 4.

Rev. and Mrs. Spangler and children, Elaine and Clint, will move in the near future.

8 At Area Meeting

Eight members of Caldwell Rebekah Lodge attended the annual school of instruction for the 28th District Tuesday at East Palestine.

Mrs. Elsie Mohr of East Palestine, district president, presided. Officers introduced were Mrs. Jennie Bell Eliott of Alliance, president of the Ohio Rebekah Assembly, and Mrs. Gladys Arno of Toledo, state secretary.

Mrs. Hester Lurain of Salem was elected district president for 1963 and next year's school will be held at Salem.

Those from Lisbon who attended were Mrs. Thomas Pike, Mrs. Kitty Snyder, Miss Dora Lones, Miss Helen Gillis, Mrs. Lloyd Hanna, Mrs. Rhonda Winters, Mrs. Herschel Barnes and Mrs. Robert Hohider.

Church Group To Meet

The Rev. Russell J. Long of the Church of the Nazarene, Ernest Smallwood, Sunday School superintendent, teachers, officers and members of the congregation plan to attend the annual Sunday School convention of the Akron District in Youngstown Thursday and Friday.

The Past Templars' Club of the Ladies of the Golden Eagle was entertained Monday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Webber of W. Maple St.

Miss Bertha Webber and Mrs. Leona McDevitt were hostesses.

Prizes for games went to Mrs. Jennie Carlisle and Mrs. Gertrude Chamberlain.

Mrs. Margaret Farmer of N. Jefferson St. will receive the club Nov. 26. Mrs. Hazel Eells will assist.

El Ocho Club Meets

El Ocho Club members were guests of Mrs. Jack Mills of Guilford Lake Monday evening. Duplicate bridge was played.

Tentative plans were made for the club to meet Nov. 19 with Mrs. Gerald Weinstock of Franklin Square Rd.

Mrs. Herschel Barnes of Black Rd., president, entertained the Past Noble Grand Club of the Caldwell Rebekah Lodge Monday evening.

There were 14 members present with Mrs. Barnes presiding for business.

Games and entertainment with prizes were planned by Mrs. Dallas Clapsaddle and Mrs. Rhonda Winters.

Mrs. Richard Walton of W. Washington St. will receive the club Nov. 26.

Mrs. C. D. Libby of W. Lincoln Way has returned after a few days visit with her son, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Libby, of Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Crosser of the Canton Rd. are attending the Ohio Grange convention at Dayton this week as delegates of the Lisbon Grange.

Sunday guests of Miss Gladys Windram of E. Lincoln Way were Clyde Douglas, Robert Douglas and Joe Georgian of Cleveland and Mr. and Mrs. Dominic Casiano of Youngstown. Clyde and Robert Douglas are former Lisbon residents.

Hatfield, Ex-West Virginia Governor, U.S. Senator Dies

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (AP) — Dr. Henry D. Hatfield, former West Virginia governor and U.S. senator, died at his home Tuesday. He was 87.

Dr. Hatfield received his medical degree in 1894 at the age of 19 and began practice in McDowell County, W. Va. Well past his 80th birthday, he kept regular office hours to see his patients.

Dr. Hatfield had been in ill health in recent years. A daughter, Mrs. Benjamin F. Fairless of Palm Springs, Calif., was at his bedside when he died at 12:50 p. m.

Dr. Hatfield was elected governor of West Virginia in 1912. He served in the U. S. Senate from 1929 through 1934.

Dr. Hatfield was born in Logan County Sept. 15, 1875. He was a nephew of "Devil Anse" Hatfield of Hatfield-McCoy feud fame.

Mrs. Fairless is the only immediate survivor.

During his term in the Senate, Hatfield was a frequent visitor at President Hoover's Rapidan, Va., summer camp.

In 1934, he was defeated by Rush D. Holt, then a Democrat and the youngest man ever to sit in the Senate. After that, Hatfield remained in political retirement except for a brief period as Cabell County Republican chairman. However, he frequently spoke at election rallies and remained interested in party affairs.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm positive my next-door neighbor is killing my shrubs which grow along the fence dividing our property.

Our yard is much prettier than hers and she is jealous. I've heard her make derogatory remarks about "grass goofy morons" who spend a lot of time babying their lawns.

A few days ago I had the nurseryman out to find out why the shrubs by the fence keep dying. He told me they are being sprayed with some sort of chemical. This neighbor works part time at a chemical plant and would have easy access to materials which the average person could not obtain.

How can I make her stop this terrible practice without coming right out and accusing her? — NEIGHBOR TROUBLES.

Dear Neighbor: Since the nurseryman seems to have substantiated your suspicions, I suggest you present the facts.

Don't accuse her outright. Simply explain that the nurseryman told you the shrubs are dying because of a chemical spray. Ask her to please be more careful with "that stuff" she is using. She'll get the picture.

Hungry Husband

Dear Ann: Maybe I am being overly sensitive about something that shouldn't matter, but it drives me crazy.

I'm a good cook and I go out of my way to have nice meals for my husband. He is not underfed or underweight either. In fact he could lose 20 pounds and it wouldn't hurt him a bit.

Whenever we go over to his mother's house (which is about three nights a week) he says, "Hello, Ma" — and heads straight for her refrigerator. It can be 10 minutes after he has finished a big meal at home but he acts as if he is starving.

His mother gives me a look that says, "Why don't you feed my son? He's always hungry."

It burns me up. Why does he do this and what can I do about it?—PEARL.

-:-

Dear Pearl: He does this because it's a childhood habit. You know how some kids are — the minute they come from school they head for the refrigerator. They may have had a popsicle, two candy bars and an ice cream cone on the way home, yet they have to check to see what else there is to eat. Your husband never outgrew the habit and he probably never will. So give up.

Teen-Age Mistake

Dear Ann: Five years ago our daughter, who was then 17, ran off and got married the day after high school graduation. She was an honor student and passed up a four-year scholarship to marry an 18-year-old kid who worked in a filling station.

You are a mother, too, Ann, so I don't have to tell you what a heartbreak this was for us.

Now, five years later, she has two children and a husband who drinks on the job and sometimes doesn't get home at night. We knew after the first six months her marriage wouldn't work.

Last night she came over and told her father and me she is through with him. She wants to come home with the two children and go to work full time. This means I would have to give up my church work and social life to take care of her youngsters.

Frankly, I don't have the patience or the strength to start raising her family. My husband says she made her bed and now we should let her lie in it. I hate to turn my back on her when she needs me. Please advise.—TORN.

Dear Torn: Meet your daughter half way. Let her come home with the understanding that she must hire help to take care of her children if she prefers to go to work.

In my opinion she would be getting more of a break than she's entitled to.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Man Doesn't Believe His Tattoo Artist

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — A man arrested in Dayton by the FBI apparently doesn't believe his tattoo artist.

William Campbell, 37, was arrested Tuesday for unlawful flight to avoid prosecution on a burglary charge filed in New Albany, Ind.

During questioning, Campbell told FBI agents he had tattoos on his arms, thighs and across his chest.

The chest tattoo reads: "Crime does not pay."

$135 Donated By Taft PTA

Contributions totaling $135 were authorized by the Taft Parent-Teacher Association at a meeting Monday night when the group endorsed the two school levies and a fire protection levy. About 75 attended.

The PTA approved a $100 contribution for the Child Counseling Center, $20 for each teacher for classroom expenses during the year and $15 for the Citizens Committee for Better Schools.

The group went on record supporting the proposed new 2-mill school operating levy and a renewal of a 3-mill levy on the Nov. 6 ballot, and renewal of a 1-mill fire levy.

Tom Dixon, principal at Westgate School and a member of the Citizens Cmmittee, spoke on the need for the school levies. Fireman Frank Shone discussed the fire levy.

Firemen Shone and Robert Lynn screened a film, "Our Obligation," depicting the need for co-operation between community, schools and firemen for school fire prevention.

Milton Watson, principal, introduced teachers and invited parents to visit the school during American Education Week next week.

The attendance award was won by the second grade of Mrs. Margaret Thompson. John Parson, president, was in charge. Devotions were led by the Rev. Russell Mase of the Emmanuel Presbyterian Church.

Next meeting is Dec. 17.

U.S. Asked To Help Beaver County Park

The Pennsylvania Planning Board has asked the federal government to contribute $1.6 million toward 10 state parks, including the tentatively planned Beaver Creek Park in Beaver County.

The Beaver Creek project would be part of a proposed enlargement of the present Beaver Creek State Park in Ohio, a 20,000-acre development along the creek in Ohio and Pennsylvania.

According to the planning board, the federal money would be part of $5.5 million to be spent next year, chiefly for parks in Butler and Bucks Counties.

Dear friends,

Experience, they say, is the best teacher. Certainly this is true of the funeral director.

The proper direction of a funeral is something one cannot learn from books alone. There are countless details involved, each funeral differing from another. An understanding of all the problems can only come through actual experience.

We trust that our many years of experience in the funeral profession have served us well.

Respectfully,
Harry L. Martin

GEISHA DAY

The geisha, Japan's traditional symbol of feminine mystery and delight, still follows the ritual of her profession in a modern day world. The elaborate kimono and the obi, the heavily-lacquered wig and the dead-white makeup remain the same, but the new way of life has decreed certain changes in routine.

Now, when she entertains the weary Japanese business executive, the geisha has learned to hold up her end of the conversation with topics which include observations on the stock market and golf. She can also offer a demure version of the Twist if the occasion demands it.

Trained from childhood for her job, the geisha's function still is to please the male at the stylized geisha party—long affairs which include course after course of foods, singing, dancing, games and drinking. The geisha must know, and play, each role as well and carefully as a veteran actress in a complicated comedy drama. And she is on stage from the time she drops gracefully on her knees at the sliding door of the straw-matted room where the party is held until the end of the evening.

Many geisha in their everyday lives are like other Japanese working girls, but with vastly different hours. They may share homes with their families and do the things that ordinary girls do, going shopping and joking with the shopkeepers.

But at nightfall, bundled into one of the few remaining rickshaws in Japan and whisked off to her job, the geisha becomes a mysterious figure of an older, traditional world.

Etsuko Yamashiro, the geisha, is a picturesque figure in her kimono and lacquered wig as she poses against the backdrop of a Japanese garden in Tokyo.

Shopping with friend, Etsuko selects choice fruit at sidewalk stand in Tokyo. In her everyday clothes she looks like any other Japanese girl.

Etsuko gets lesson in playing the "samisen," a traditional Japanese lute-like stringed instrument. Playing and singing are important parts of a geisha's profession.

Proud of her looks, pretty Etsuko brushes her hair as she sits up in her futon, a Japanese mattress bed. She covers her head later with lacquered wig.

Etsuko's mistress helps the geisha don her heavily-lacquered wig as she gets ready for the evening.

It's the beginning of another evening of serving entertainment as she drops gracefully on her knees at the sliding door of room carpeted with straw mats. A young guest awaits her arrival.

Out Of The Air

Boris Back As Big Bad Monster

The old monster man, Boris Karloff, thought his monstering days were behind him. "I have arthritis, bronchitis, dishpan hands and housemaid's knee," says Boris, whose self-made diagnosis would make Dr. Ben Casey's mouth water.

Hal Humphrey

Despite these ailments, Boris recently flew from his home in London to Chicago and for the first time in 27 years donned the Frankenstenian monster makeup which made him famous.

-:-

THE OCCASION was a kind of ridiculous "Route 66" story which airs on CBS Friday at 8:30 p.m. Boris, Peter Lorre, Lon Chaney Jr. and Martita Hunt (playing themselves) rendezvous in the Windy City, supposedly to decide if there is a future in reviving old-fashioned horror shows—the kind where the beautiful girl is carried off to the monster's lair for a bit of hi-jinks.

"I made the trip to Chicago," Boris confesses, "because a dear friend of mine was playing there in the road company of 'Mary, Mary.' This way I had an opportunity to visit with him and get paid for it, too."

To the casual viewer, Boris' "Route 66" monster may look the same as it did in the three "Frankenstein" movies he made from 1931 to 1935, and which run periodically on TV now. But Boris will tell you that the similarity is only superficial.

"THE OLD MOVIE makeup took four hours to put on," recalls Boris. "The one in Chicago was much modified and required only 45 minutes.

"Most of it was prefabricated this time. The built-up forehead, for example, was all one piece. It was all right, you understand, but the original looked better, of course.

A studio makeup expert named Jack Pearce and Boris created the original monster. Each of the boots Boris wore then weighed 15 pounds, lending to the reality of the monster's ponderous strides.

"Actually, we should hang our heads in shame today, when it comes to the art of special make-up," says Boris. "No one compares with the old Lon Chaney. He was the master, and he did his own makeup for every one of his roles.

"Here I am, dozing off in the barber chair while someone applies the stuff," Boris adds, with a nostalgic sigh for craftsman Lon Chaney Sr.

CURRENTLY, Boris is teamed with his buddies-in-horror, Peter Lorre and Vincent Price, in a quickie (17 days of shooting) movie production of Edgar Allen Poe's "The Raven."

"It is a very loose adaptation," says Boris, his best sinister smile showing. "I play a magician named Dr. Scarabus, and Peter, here, is turned into the raven."

The plump and pixieish Peter grimaced at mention of his part in this affair, adding a quip to the conversation which Boris asked to be stricken from the record.

While making this movie, Boris and Peter were propositioned by an eager-beaver promoter to star in their own TV series (with a sizeable piece for the promoter, of course), and they chased him right from the set.

"WHO WANTS to go back to stock?" Boris grunted. "I want to take time out to live. I spent the summer watching the cricket matches in England, and now rugby is in full cry. I can hardly wait to get back. What does one work for, if not to enjoy the fruits of his labor?"

Years ago Boris spent a decade in Canadian stock companies, then another decade doing bit parts in Hollywood movies. Not until Frankenstein's monster came along did he begin making enough money to attend more than a handful of cricket matches.

And, after all, he is 75 now. He can afford to let the Troy Donahues and Doug McClures do the stock.

Lisbon Welfare Fund Drive Reaches $1,470

LISBON — The Community Chest campaign of Lisbon and Center Township has hit $1,470.24, according to Mrs. Kenneth Williams, secretary.

The drive began Oct. 7 and the goal was set at $7,799.

Mrs. Wilford Culler of Lisbon and Mrs. Ralph Clark of Center Township won prizes donated by Hamilton's Drugstore for the first solicitors to complete collections.

Cornell P. Monda, chairman, urged the volunteers to complete the canvass of their territories and report as soon as possible.

Psychologist Speaks At Beaver Local PTA

Some 175 attended a meeting of the Beaver Local Parent-Teacher Association Monday night at the Public School at which Cornell Monda, Lisbon school psychologist, was speaker.

Monda discussed child counseling, problems faced by parents and teachers and some of the types of cases handled at the East Liverpool Child Counseling Center.

Mrs. Veronica Wolski, president, was in charge. The attendanie award was presented to Mrs. Lewis Lee's fifth grade, which had the largest representation of fathers.

Next meeting is Nov. 26.

Earnings More Than Doubled, Firm Says

CLEVELAND (AP) — Thompson Ramo Wooldridge Inc. reported today its earnings for the first nine months this year more than doubled those of a similar period in 1961.

In its quarterly report to shareholders, the firm said net income for the three-quarters this year was $9,108,902, equal to $2.62 a share, compared with $3,794,356, or $1.10 a share, for the first nine months of 1961. Sales were reported at $342.2 million for the three-quarters this year, an increase of $40.9 million from the corresponding period last year.

Net income of $2,694,236, equal to 77 cents a share, was reported for the third quarter this year, compared with net income of $1,723,019, equal to 50 cents a share, for a like period in 1961.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Overweight Prevention Seen Best Method

How much did you weigh a brief five years ago, and how much do you weigh now? Take that weight increase as the trend. If you are a mere 10 pounds above your willowy weight, this column is especially for you. An ounce of prevention at this point on the scales is worth pounds of reduction a few years hence.

Ida Jean Kain

There is a common complaint that food seems to get more fattening. In a way, it does. With no change in your pattern of eating, pounds sneak on. There is really no mystery about it. It's a fattening fact that after 25 years of age you burn 5 to 7 per cent fewer calories with each passing decade.

There it is...the food habits established in your active years are now too fattening — but you cling to them. Automation figures in too.

WHO USES muscles today? What is tough to take is that when your fuel requirements lessen, eating as usual becomes overeating. The excess, be it ever so slight, gradually accumulates.

You have a choice to make. You can allow the 10 excess pounds to grow into a weighty problem..or you can use the science of nutrition to curb calories to keep within your diminished requirements.

Let's analyze our situation. Actually we are eating less today than we did in the good old days. The real problem is our diminshed activity. The solution is to step up activity, add a daily walk, join a gym, or a dancing class, take calisthenics...anything you choose.

On the food score, the simplest plan is to leave off rich desserts. Of course this may not be the easy way for you. An amusing cartoon in a magazine shows a buxom matron, menu in hand, saying to a startled waiter..."If I order pastry, don't bring it!" When dining out, it's not safe to even read the dessert list.

Glen Hart Elected New Head Of Barbershop Quartet Unit

Glen Hart was elected president of the East Liverpool Chapter of SPEBSQSA at a meeting Monday night in Carpenters Hall.

Others elected are Dale Keddie, program vice president; Gerald Watkins, membership vice president; William Thomas, secretary and Sam Wolfe, treasurer. Dean Manning was named delegate for his seventh consecutive year.

Bob Blatchford, retiring president, conducted business. Dick Smith, chairman, announced the installation of officers will be held at the Christmas banquet Dec. 20 at Deramo's Restaurant in Midland.

Tentative plans were made for the Christmas party for children of members on Dec. 17 and the annual caroling at hospitals Dec. 22.

Manning reported on the international convention of Sweet Adelines he attended with his wife last week at Toronto, Canada, when the Heathertones Quartet placed second. Plans were made to extend congratulations to the members.

Don Schussler reported the monthly bulletin, "The Woodshedder," will be published next week and members may submit news until Friday.

Some eight members of the chapter will usher for the Sweet Adelines "Parade of Quartets" Saturday night at Westgate School.

Watkins thanked "The Colonials" quartet for his trip to Tonawanda, N. Y., when he was their guest. They appeared in a barbershop parade. They plan to take a member of the chapter to every performance.

Hart directed a practice session in the absence of Bill Brooks, assistant director. Glenn Woods will resume directing the chorus next Monday, after a leave of absence because of recent surgery.

3 Convicted Of Kidnaping Mosler, Wife

NEW YORK (AP)—Three men were convicted today of kidnaping John Mosler and his wife last New Year's Eve and holding the couple captive in the Mosler car while their apartment here was rifled of $75,000 in jewelry and cash.

A State Supreme Court jury brought in the guilty verdicts against David M. Levy, 35, of Manhattan; Patrick J. Maloney, 29, of the Bronx, and Louis D'Antonio, 31, of the Bronx. The prosecution described Levy as the "brains" behind the crime.

Mosler is president of the Mosler Safe Co. of Hamilton, Ohio.

The jury, given the case Tuesday afternoon, deliberated about seven hours before bringing in its verdict at 12:30 a.m.

A fourth man, John Richlia, 28, of Brooklyn, an ex-convict, had pleaded guilty to robbery and was a key government witness.

Levy, Maloney and D'Antonio were found guilty of two counts of kidnaping and two counts of robbery. They also were convicted of criminally possessing two pistols.

Justice Irwin D. Davidson, who asked for probation and psychiatric reports on the three men, set Nov. 27 for sentencing. Richlia is also to be sentenced then.

The three convicted today face possible maximum sentences of 20 years to life on each of the two kidnaping counts and 10-30 years on each of the two robbery counts.

Richlia faces a possible maximum term of 20 years on his guilty plea to robbery.

City Girls To Dance At Eisenhower Rally

Two city girls will be among about 20 to perform in acts at the Republican rally Thursday evening in the Civic Arena at Pittsburgh.

Former President Dwight Eisenhower will speak.

Mary Lou McGaffic, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Robert McGaffic of Sunnyside Ave., and Maxine Skaleski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Skaleski of Sherwood Ave., will perform in an act presented by Cassidy Dance Studio of Alliance.

Miss McGaffic, a ninth grader at Westgate School, and Miss Skaleski, a junior at East Liverpool High School, made their professional debut last summer.

Soviet A-Bases In Cuba Surprised U.S. Experts

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Soviet Union's installation of nuclear missiles in Cuba caught U.S. experts by surprise and demolished, almost overnight, their carefully constructed estimate of Soviet strategy in the Western Hemisphere.

Until evidence of the introduction of atomic striking power became available to President Kennedy eight days ago, the belief of officials here had been that the Soviet Union intended to use Cuba only as a base for a political and guerrilla offensive against Latin America.

That strategy did not require nuclear weapons in the Caribbean island. It required only that Prime Minister Fidel Castro be armed defensively against any new limited invasion attempt or an internal uprising.

The disclosures which President Kennedy made to the nation Monday night wrecked the theory that the Soviets were supplying arms to Castro only for his own protection. They showed that Cuba was being converted into a Soviet military base with a destructive potential unequaled by any known base on the Communist side of the world conflict except installations in the Soviet Union itself.

In the light of this bold and unexpected thrust into U.S. security territory thousands of miles from the Soviet Union, the Kennedy administration presumably is reassessing Soviet strategy not only toward the Western Hemisphere but also on a global scale.

There are several puzzling aspects to the Soviet action. One is that policy-makers in the Kremlin must have known that the presence of missiles in Cuba would be discovered almost at once. When the heavy buildup of arms in Cuba began last July the State Department repeatedly disclosed precise figures on missile bases, ships and fighter planes which were detected in the island.

The Soviet government, furthermore, had given public and private assurances that the buildup was only for Cuban defensive purposes. It had boasted publicly that the Soviet Union did not need to base missiles outside its own territory to reach any target in the world, including the United States.

PEOPLE

WHO WANT TO BE DOWNTOWN AND ON ONE FLOOR have liked this property but some felt that the price was a little high for them. The owner now tells me to get him a fair offer. It has five rooms and bath on one floor, carpeting, full basement, garage and gas furnace—also on one floor a neat three room and bath bringing in $60 per month. See us for a bargain.

ARE RAVING ABOUT THE ONE AT 733 MINERVA STREET with it's beautiful birch kitchen, new tiled bath, gas furnace, and double garage, but two or three turned aside on account of financing. Now we have an attractive plan through the graciousness of the owner whereby we will be able to help you if you have $1,000 down payment.

Junior Editors Quiz on SCIENCE

QUESTION: Why do we have to put two holes in a can to make its contents run freely?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: Remember that air is a definite substance and has weight. On every square inch of your skin the air presses down with about 15 pounds of weight. We don't notice air pressure on us because forces inside press out to balance it. In our picture, Thomas has punched a hole in the lid of a jar containing water and is holding it upside down. A few drops ran out; then the water stopped running. The reason is that the water which ran out created an empty space above. Since air can't get up in there, the pressure in that space is low. At the bottom hole, air is pushing up against the water, so the water stays where it is. In Marcia's jar, air is forcing its way up by bubbles through one of the holes. This adds enough air pressure on top so the water will run out of the other hole.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: Put a drinking straw in a glass of water. Cover the top of the straw tightly with your thumb and lift out. Water will remain inside the straw the way it remains inside Thomas' jar. Remove thumb and the water runs out. Pumps work by this "suction" principle. A partial "vacuum," or area of little air pressure is created, so that the outside pressure will force the water up.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. What can I do about the nails, screws, and hooks in my walls when I'm about to repaper the room?

A. Remove these holders and replace them with toothpicks, allowing the points to protrude from the wall. When the new paper is smoothed over them, they will come through, and there will be no need to rip the paper or remeasure the walls to find the proper places for your pictures and mirrors.

Q. How can I eradicate some small heat marks on my dining-room table?

A. Try inverting a muffin tin over the marked area, then resting a hot iron on the pan for a few minutes.

Q. How can I "rejuvenate" a limp and lifeless tape measure?

A. Place between sheets of waxed paper, and then press over it lightly with a medium-warm iron.

Q. How can I frost the panes of a window?

A. Dissolve three teaspoons of Epsom salts in a glass of water, add a teaspoon of liquid glue, and stir thoroughly. Apply to glass with a brush.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Illness Fakes To Avoid Responsibility

The end of the index finger of my right hand is bent a bit. It got that way when, at about the age of 10, I was running, for fun, a long strip of cloth between the cogwheels of a portable cider press. My finger slipped in and was crushed. It happened at the time of year when weeds were to be pulled from the garden and many other disliked jobs had to be done. As it was my right hand that was injured, I was not expected to do any of these jobs for several weeks. I made no effort to use my left hand for such jobs and no one of the family insisted that I should.

Dr. Garry Meyers

WELL DO I remember watching with great satisfaction my older brother and father doing many jobs I otherwise would have had to help do or do alone. I complained of how sore that finger was for many days after it was well. I had satisfying practice of malingering, at running away from what I hated to do.

So I have had first - hand experience at malingering. Besides, I have over the year seen many a case of this in other children, also in adults.

Malingering can begin in the child's early years and have long practice before it is suspected by the parents. Playing sick, having a headache or a pain in the stomach, may help a boy or girl escape doing the dishes or other jobs about the home.

THE TYPE MOST familiar to you and me is getting sick on a school morning in order to stay home. Ever so many parents write me about this problem. In nearly every instance, they say the alleged illness occurs only on school mornings, never on weekends or holidays; also that an hour or so after time for school, all symptoms of illness vanish.

Let me advise that, if the child repeatedly says he is sick on a school morning, you take his temperature. If he has a fever you would, of course, call the doctor. Even if there were no temperature and you still were doubtful, you might wish to call the physician.

If he found no illness you might wish to take the child at his word, put him to bed for the day and following night with very light diet, no radio or TV or other means of amusement and very little attention from anybody.

IF HE WERE really sick, the rest and quiet would be good for him; if he were malingering; he almost surely would decide not to try the trick again.

It might be well, of course, to try to find out the reasons why this child doesn't want to go to school.

My bulletins, "Parents Can Help Child Succeed at School" and "Educating Child in Responsibility", may be had by sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

If you have a leg of lamb boned, you can spread the meat with a favorite dressing, then roll up and tie. Use a meat thermometer with this meat, just as you would with any roast, to make sure it reaches the degree of doneness your family enjoys.

Assault Case Slated Nov. 1

Overruling defense counsel's motion for a dismissal, Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff Tuesday set a hearing Thursday, Nov. 1 at 9 a. m. for Mr. and Mrs. Dovener D. Sprouse, 1063 Jennings Ave., named in separate affidavits alleging that they "assaulted and threatened" a neighbor, Mrs. Joan D. Deem, 1067 Jennings Ave.

The case had been continued until yesterday when the couple was before the judge last on Oct. 11. At that time, Atty. J. Warren Bettis of Salineville, defense counsel, told Judge Chertoff both families had been summoned before Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin at Lisbon for a hearing in a charge arising out of essentially the same set of facts.

As the case resumed in the local court yesterday, Atty. Bettis moved for dismissal on the grounds the cases against the Sprouses already had been disposed of in Judge Tobin's court last Thursday. He gave Judge Chertoff a journal entry signed by Judge Tobin, but it was not placed in the record.

"The facts would be the same here as in the Juvenile Court case," Atty. Bettis told the court, indicating the case arose over an argument over children Oct. 1.

However, Mrs. Deem and her husband insisted on proceeding with the assault charge. They said it was not brought up in the hearing before Judge Tobin. Then Atty. Bettis moved for a continuance, explaining he needed time to prepare the defense.

Before Judge Chertoff set the date, Asst. Solicitor Richard J. Clark commented: "You better set aside a whole day to hear this case."

Farm Unit Urges State Income Tax

The Southern Jets Farm Bureau Council met Saturday night and recommended that the personal property tax be discontinued for a state income tax.

The group also recommended that instead of building new school that present schools be operated in double shifts.

A discussion was held on having a member of the council as a representative to the area council. A discussion was also held on the farmers' tax problems.

About five attended the meeting held at the home of the president, Herbert Frischkorn of Wellsville R. D. 1. Mrs. Frischkorn served lunch.
